Women and Terrorism
Female activity in domestic and international terror groups

Margaret Gonzalez-Perez
Contents

Preface vii
Acknowledgments ix
List of acronyms x

Introduction 1

1 Domestic and international terrorism 5
International terrorist organizations 6
Domestic terrorist organizations 7
Defining terrorism 8
States, nations, nationalism, and international actors 12
Models of women's participation in terrorist organizations 14

2 The Americas: new women in a new world 21
The Americas: domestic terrorism 22
The Americas: international terrorism 48

3 Asia: freedom birds and water buffaloes 60
Asia: domestic terrorism 60
Asia: international terrorism 71

4 Africa and the Middle East: behind the veil 79
Africa and the Middle East: domestic terrorism 80
Africa and the Middle East: international terrorism 88

5 Europe: discontent on the continent 102
Europe: domestic terrorism 102
Europe: international terrorism 111
Contents

6 Conclusion 122

Future research 129
Normative implications and policy suggestions 130

References 132
Index 156