Weak State,
Uncertain Citizenship:
Moldova
Contents

Acknowledgements  v

Preface by Stefan Troebst and Chris Hann  ix

1 State and Citizenship in Moldova: A Pragmatic Point of View  1
   Monica Heintz

PART ONE: WEAKNESSES OF THE MOLDOVAN STATE  19

2 Weak State and Citizenship by Default  21
   Florent Parmentier

3 What kind of Nationalism for the Republic of Moldova?  33
   Catalina Zgureanu-Guragata

4 Transnistria's Survival  55
   Nicu Popescu

PART TWO: MEMORIES AND IMAGINATIONS OF PAST REGIMES  71

5 Memories of States Past: Identity Salience and the Challenges of Citizenship  73
   Jennifer R. Cash

6 Gagauz Autonomy and Ambiguous Citizenship  89
   Hülya Demirdirek

7 The ‘Transnistrian People’? Citizenship and Imaginings of ‘The State’ in an Unrecognised Country  103
   Rebecca Chamberlain-Creangă

PART THREE: CAN CITIZENSHIP AND NATIONAL IDENTITY BE DISCONNECTED?  125

8 National Identity between History Teaching and Politics: Moldova (2001-2007)  127
   Sergiu Musteata
(Un)civic Discourses and their Discontents: Moldovanist and Romanianist Conceptions of the Nation and its Citizens in Current History Textbooks and Historiography of the Republic of Moldova (1991-2006) 149
Stefan Ihrig

Making Patriots or Democratic Citizens? History Education and the Challenges to Education for Citizenship in the Republic of Moldova 165
Elisabeth Anderson

PART FOUR: THE UNCERTAIN FUTURE 177

Can Federalism Cope with the Challenges of the Transnistrian Conflict? 179
Florentina Harbo

Inside and Outside the Border: Moldova and Romania in Wider Europe 191
Odette Tomescu-Hatto

Bibliography

Contributors

Index