WHALING HARPOONS, HARPOON GUNS AND RELATED WEAPONS AND TOOLS IN THE HULL MARITIME MUSEUM
and in other public and private collections;
with extensive notes on their evolution
from the Middle Ages to the present

Arthur G. Credland

Part 1: Main Text

_Hull Maritime Museum 2008_
CONTENTS

The origins and development of the Hull Museum collection
Wilberforce House and the 'Old Times Street'; Museum of Fisheries and Shipping; Unicorns and White Whales; Sealing weapon; Shoulder Guns, Miscellanea; Harpoon Guns 5-23

Records of early experimental designs of harpoons, harpoon guns and other weapons
Whaling crossbow; whalingmarking and tranquilising; Air weapons; Rockets; Manby's shaftless and other improved harpoons; introduction of percussion lock; Scoresby and Manby correspondence; Bomb lances 23-43

Hand and other harpoons of Britain and the U.S.A.
Dr. Bayles harpoon; Harpoons with stop withers; Marking harpoons; Harpoon makers; Grommet iron; Toggle iron; Robert Brown's harpoon; Walrus harpoons; Origins of whaling; Whale spearing; Harpoons - general 43-58

Post-war acquisitions
Harpoons from the Azores; American single-flued iron and darting iron; Shoulder guns and Darting guns; a note on hunting the Manta ray; Pilot whaling in the Faroe Islands; Modern methods of whaling (a) explosive harpoons and harpoon cannon (b) the electric harpoon, and the poison harpoon. 58-75

Acknowledgements 77

Notes 77-78

References / Bibliography 79-86

Index to volume 1 87-101