Contents

Acknowledgements vii
List of Contributors ix

Introduction 1
Aleksandar Pavković

1 Secession: A Word in Search of a Meaning 17
Peter Radan

2 Neo-liberal Globalisation, Nationalism, and Changed ‘Conditions of Possibility’ for Secessionist Mobilisation 33
Lloyd Cox

3 Secession and State Recognition in International Relations and Law 51
Mikulas Fabry

4 New Norms, Old Boundaries: The African Union’s Approach to Secession and State Sovereignty 67
Kathryn Sturman

5 The Way Opened, the Way Blocked: Assessing the Contrasting Fates of Chechnya and Kosovo 85
James Headley

6 Secessionist Legitimacy: A Comparative Analysis 101
Damien Kingsbury

7 Self-determination and Secession: A Moral Theory Perspective 117
Aris Gounaris

8 Consensual Secession of Montenegro – Towards Good Practice? 133
Miodrag Jovanović

9 The Collective Moral Agency of Secessionist Groups 149
Constantinos Laoutides

10 The First Secessions 163
Tom Hillard

Index 175