New Histories for Old: Changing Perspectives on Canada’s Native Pasts
Contents

Maps / vi

Introduction / xi
Ted Binnema and Susan Neylan

1 Arthur J. Ray and the Writing of Aboriginal History / 1
Ted Binnema and Susan Neylan

2 Rupert’s Land, Nituskeenan, Our Land: Cree and English Naming and Claiming around the Dirty Sea / 18
Jennifer S.H. Brown

3 Echo of the Crane: Tracing Anishnawbek and Métis Title to Bawating (Sault Ste. Marie) / 41
Victor P. Lytwyn

4 Compact, Contract, Covenant: The Evolution of Indian Treaty-Making / 66
J.R. Miller

5 Smallpox along the Frontier of the Plains Borderlands at the Turn of the Twentieth Century / 92
Jody Decker

6 Mapping the New El Dorado: The Fraser River Gold Rush and the Appropriation of Native Space / 119
Daniel Marshall
7 Innovation, Tradition, Colonialism, and Aboriginal Fishing Conflicts in the Lower Fraser Canyon / 145
Keith Thor Carlson

8 Meanings of Mobility on the Northwest Coast / 175
Paige Raibmon

9 “Choose Your Flag”: Perspectives on the Tsimshian Migration from Metlakatla, British Columbia; to New Metlakatla, Alaska, 1887 / 196
Susan Neylan

10 Gitxsan Law and Settler Disorder: The Skeena “Uprising” of 1888 / 220
R.M. Galois

11 Arthur J. Ray and the Empirical Opportunity / 249
Cole Harris

 Contributors / 265

Index / 269