Contents

List of Tables ......................................................................................................................... ix
List of Figures ......................................................................................................................... x
Foreword to the First Edition ................................................................................................. xi
Preface to the Third Edition and Summary ......................................................................... xiii
Acknowledgements ............................................................................................................... xvii

1. INTRODUCTION

1.1 The Relevance of Comparisons of Federal Systems ............................................. 1
1.2 A Brief History of Federalism .................................................................................. 2
1.3 The Contemporary Relevance of Federalism ....................................................... 4
1.4 Definition of Terms and of Principles of Federalism .......................................... 8
1.5 Variations in Federations ......................................................................................... 18
1.6 Federal Societies, Constitutions and Governments ............................................. 19
1.7 Issues in the Design and Operation of Federations ............................................ 23
1.8 Federations Considered in This Study ................................................................. 24

2. OVERVIEW OF CONTEMPORARY FEDERATIONS

2.1 Mature Federations ................................................................................................. 29
   United States of America (1789) ............................................................................. 29
   The Swiss Confederation (1848) .......................................................................... 30
   Canada (1867) ........................................................................................................ 32
   The Commonwealth of Australia (1901) ............................................................. 33
   The Federal Republic of Austria (1920) ............................................................... 34
   The Federal Republic of Germany (1949) ............................................................. 35
   The Republic of India (1950) ................................................................................. 36
2.2 Emergent Federations

The United Mexican States (1917) .......................................................... 38
The Federation of Malaysia (1963) ......................................................... 39
The Islamic Republic of Pakistan (1973) .............................................. 40
The Kingdom of Spain (1978) .............................................................. 41
The Federative Republic of Brazil (1988) .............................................. 42
The Kingdom of Belgium (1993) .......................................................... 43
The Russian Federation (1993) ............................................................. 45
The Argentine Republic (1994) .............................................................. 47
The Republic of South Africa (1996) ..................................................... 49
The Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela (1999) ..................................... 51

2.3 Micro-Federations

The Federated States of Micronesia (1978) ............................................ 52
The Republic of Belau (1981) ................................................................. 53
The Federation of St. Kitts and Nevis (1985) .......................................... 54
The Union of the Comoros (2001) .......................................................... 54

2.4 Confederal-Federal Hybrids

United Arab Emirates (1971) ............................................................... 55
The European Union (1993) ................................................................. 56

2.5 Post-Conflict Federal Experiments

The Republic of Bosnia and Herzegovina (1995) ................................. 58
Republic of Sudan (2005) .................................................................... 59
Republic of Iraq (2005) ....................................................................... 60
The Democratic Republic of Congo (2006) ........................................ 61

3. THE FORMATION OF FEDERATIONS

3.1 The Variety of Factors and Processes ............................................... 63
3.2 The Balance of Pressures .................................................................. 63
3.3 Differing Processes in the Creation of Federations ........................... 65
3.4 Catalysts of Political Integration ....................................................... 66
3.5 Catalysts of Constituent Unit Autonomy ........................................... 66
3.6 The Capacity for Federal Government .............................................. 68
3.7 The Influence of Models .................................................................... 69

4. THE CONSTITUENT UNITS

4.1 The Building Blocks of Federations ................................................ 71
4.2 The Number of Constituent Units .................................................... 71
4.3 The Size and Wealth of Constituent Units ........................................ 72
4.4 Categories of Constituent Units ....................................................... 74
4.5 The Regional Distinctiveness of Constituent Units ............................. 76
Comparing Federal Systems

5. THE DISTRIBUTION OF AUTHORITY IN FEDERATIONS

5.1 A Fundamental Feature of Federations

5.2 Relationship between Legislative and Executive Authority

5.3 Variations in the Form of the Distribution of Legislative Authority
   - Exclusive Legislative Authority
   - Concurrent Legislative Authority
   - Shared Authority
   - Residual Authority
   - Emergency or Override Powers

5.4 The Scope of Legislative Authority Allocated

5.5 Distribution of Administrative Responsibilities

5.6 Evolution of the Distribution of Powers

6. THE DISTRIBUTION OF FINANCES

6.1 Importance of the Allocation of Financial Resources

6.2 The Distribution of Revenue Powers
   - Allocation of Tax Powers
   - Natural Resource Revenues
   - Other Revenue Raising Issues

6.3 The Allocation of Expenditure Powers

6.4 The Issue of Vertical and Horizontal Imbalances

6.5 The Role of Financial Transfers

6.6 Conditional or Unconditional Transfers

6.7 Equalization Transfers

6.8 Processes and Institutions for Adjusting Financial Arrangements

7. INTERGOVERNMENTAL RELATIONS

7.1 Importance of Processes for Intergovernmental Collaboration

7.2 Forms and Extent of Intergovernmental Relations

7.3 Other Devices for Flexibility and Adjustment in the Distribution of Powers

7.4 Cooperative versus Competitive Federalism

7.5 Implications for the Democratic Character of Federations

8. SYMMETRY AND ASYMMETRY IN FEDERATIONS

8.1 Political and Constitutional Asymmetry Distinguished
Comparing Federal Systems

The Character of Federal Decision Making ......................... 175
12.2 A Comparative Assessment ........................................ 176
12.3 Minimum Federal Powers ........................................... 177

13. THE PATHOLOGY OF FEDERATIONS

13.1 Significance of the Pathology of Federations .................. 179
13.2 Sources of Stress .................................................. 180
   The Distribution and Character of Internal Social Divisions ... 180
   The Role of Institutions and Structures .......................... 181
   Strategies Adopted to Combat Disintegration ................... 182
   Polarizing Political Processes .................................... 183
13.3 The Special Problem of Two-Unit Federations .................. 184
13.4 Processes and Consequences of Disintegration .................. 185
13.5 Post-Conflict Situations .......................................... 187

14. CONCLUSIONS

14.1 Implications Drawn from This Comparative Study ............... 189
14.2 Federalism and Liberal-Democratic Values ...................... 192

APPENDIX A
The Distribution of Powers and Functions in Selected Federations:
A Comparative Overview ............................................. 193

SELECTED READINGS .................................................. 199