Contents

Introduction:
Latin American Jewish Cultural Production
David William Foster ix

PART I
Latin American Jewish Identity

1 Notes Concerning Jewish Identity in Brazil:
From Word to Image
Berta Waldman 3

2 "Israel": An Abstract Concept or Concrete Reality
in Recent Judeo-Argentinean Narrative?
Amalia Ran 24

3 Beyond Exotic: Jewish Mysticism and the Supernatural
in the Works of Alejandro Jodorowsky
Ariana Huberman 41

PART II
The Literary Record

4 Writing on the Shoah in Brazil
Márcio Seligmann-Silva 63

5 Judaic Traces in the Narrative of Clarice Lispector:
Identity Politics and Evidence
Naomi Lindstrom 83

6 Argentina’s Wandering Jews: Judaism, Loyalty, Text,
and Homeland in Marcelo Birmajer’s Tres mosqueteros
Sarah Giffney 97
PART III
The Plastic Arts

7 Spectacle and Spirituality: The Cacophony of Objects, Nelson Leirner (b. 1932)
   Laura Fellemann Fattal 119

8 Text and the City: Design(at)ing Post-Dictatorship Memorial Sites in Buenos Aires
   Janis Breckenridge 135

PART IV
Film and Photography

9 Mexican Women, Jewish Women: Novia que te vea from Book to Screen and Back Again
   Ilene S. Goldman 157

10 Catastrophe and Periphery: July 18, 1994, and September 11, 2001, on Film
   Hernán Feldman 178

11 Madalena Schwartz: A Jewish Brazilian Photographer
   David William Foster 198

Afterword:
Identifying Jewishness
   Edward H. Friedman 213

Contributors 227

Index 231