Contents

Foreword ........................................................................................................... xv
Preface ........................................................................................................... xvii
Acknowledgments ............................................................................................ xix
Editors ........................................................................................................... xxii
Contributors ................................................................................................... xxiii

PART I: SETTING THE STAGE

1. History, Concepts, and Overview .............................................................. 3
   CYNTHIA MASSIE MARA

2. Public Perceptions of Long-Term Care ..................................................... 19
   LAURA KATZ OLSON

3. Looking for Care in All the Wrong Places .................................................. 35
   DEBORAH STONE

4. The Medicalization of Long-Term Care: Weighing the Risks ..................... 47
   COLLEEN M. GROGAN

PART II: PROVIDING AND RECEIVING CARE

5. Older Long-Term Care Recipients ............................................................ 73
   MEGAN E. McCUTCHEON AND WILLIAM J. McAULEY

6. Younger Individuals with Disabilities: Compatibility of Long-Term Care and Independent Living ............................................. 85
   ARTHUR W. BLASER

7. Informal Caregivers and Caregiving: Living at Home
   with Personal Care .................................................................................... 105
   SHARON M. KEIGHER

8. Trends and Challenges in Building a Twenty-First Century Long-Term Care Workforce
   EDWARD ALAN MILLER AND VINCENT MOR
   133

9. The Role and Responsibilities of the Medical Director and the Attending Physician in Long-Term Care Facilities
   DANIEL SWAGERTY
   157

PART III: FOCUSING ON SERVICES

10. Long-Term Care Services, Care Coordination, and the Continuum of Care
    MEGAN E. McCUTCHEON AND WILLIAM J. McCAULEY
    173

11. Legal Issues Related to Long-Term Care: Elder Law, Estate Planning, and Asset Protection
    JAN L. BROWN
    197

12. Long-Term Care Housing Trends: Past and Present
    SHANNON M. CHANCE
    221

PART IV: ADMINISTERING CARE

13. Long-Term Care Governance and Administration: A Historical Perspective
    STEPHEN E. PROCTOR
    241

14. Improving the Quality of Long-Term Care with Better Information
    VINCENT MOR
    267

15. Long-Term Care Housing Types and Design
    SHANNON M. CHANCE
    293

PART V: POLICY MAKING AND FINANCING

16. Long-Term Care Politics and Policy
    WILLIAM WEISSERT
    319

17. Geriatric Mental Health Policy: Impact on Service Delivery and Directions for Effecting Change
    BRADLEY E. KARLIN AND MICHAEL DUFFY
    339

18. Private Financing for Long-Term Care
    GALEN H. SMITH AND WILLIAM P. BRANDON
    363
19. Public Financing of Long-Term Care ........................................... 387
    STEPHEN A. STEMKOWSKI AND WILLIAM P. BRANDON

PART VI: LOOKING AHEAD

20. Focal Points of Change ............................................................. 415
    CYNTHIA MASSIE MARA

Index .................................................................................................. 425