Capitalism, Democracy and the Prevention of War and Poverty

Edited by
Peter Graeff and Guido Mehlkop
Contents

1 Introduction
GUIDO MEHLKOP AND PETER GRAEFF

2 Thucydides, ancient Greece and the democratic peace
BRUCE RUSSETT

3 What is the democratic peace and why pursue it?
RUDOLPH J. RUMMEL

4 Production, prosperity, preferences, and peace
ERIK GARTZKE

5 Peace by interdemocratic institutions? A theoretical framework
BRIGITTE WEIFFEN

6 Rewards of freedom: Democracy and the inflow of foreign direct investment, 1984–2001
INDRA DE SOYSA AND JO JAKOBSEN

7 Is the IMF right? How robust is the relationship between market-oriented institutions and policies and economic growth?
JAKOB DE HAAN AND JAN-EGBERT STURM

8 Economic freedom, wealth and corruption: Analyzing their empirical connection by means of correspondence analysis
JÖRG BLASIUS AND PETER GRAEFF

9 Varieties of capitalism and social change in rich democracies
VOLKER BORNSCHIER
xii Contents

10 Authority – A social coordination-mechanism: A contribution to the explanation and analysis of social mechanisms 185
ANDREA MAURER

11 Conclusion 202
PETER GRAEFF AND GUIDO MEHLKOP

Author index 210
Subject index 216