GOOD LOCAL AUTONOMY & GOVERNANCE

Edited by Eung Kyuk Park
Walter Klitz

Center for Local Autonomy
Friedrich Naumann Foundation
Contents

• Preface

PART I • Civil Society and Local Autonomy

• The Change and Development of Local Self-Government in Korea: From Centralization to Decentralization / Eung Kyuk Park 13
• Local Self-Government and Encouragement of Citizens' Commitment in the Civil Society of Germany / Rainer Pitschas 29
• Germany's Most Recent Waves of Local Government Reforms - The Double Impact of Local Direct Democracy and Administrative Modernization / Hellmut Wollmann 45
• Public Engagement and the American Metropolis / Renu Khator 63
• Development of Korean NGOs and Governmental Assistance to NGOs / Pan Suk Kim 85

PART II • The Role of Local Governance in Transformation

• The Transformation of the Political and Administrative System in Central and East Europe - with Special Reference to Local Governance in East Germany / Manfred Röber 109
• The Role of Local Governance in Economic Transformation - Lessons from Naga City in Philippines / Jesse M. Robredo 133
• Local Governance and Its Role In Socio-Economic Development - Lessons from Naga City in Philippines / Kuppusamy Singaravelloo 151
• North Korean Local Politics and Prospects for Transformation / Jinwook Choi 169

PART III • New Ideas for Good Governance in Global Cities

• Towards Modern Governance in Berlin / Manfred Röber 195
PART IV • The Role of Metropolitan Councils to Promote Citizen Participation in Global Cities

- Citizen Participation in Metropolitan Cities—with Special Reference to Boroughs in Berlin's Two-Tier-System / Manfred Röber
- Citizen Participation A London Case Study / Derek Osbourne
- The New York City Metropolitan Council: Promoting Citizen Participation in the 21st Century / Bernard Rowan
- Metropolitan Council and Citizen Participation - Seoul Metropolitan Council As Center / Jae-gak Jeong

PART V • Federalism as an Agent for Decentralization and Regional Integration

- Ideas of Federalism for Decentralization and National Peace / Eung Kyuk Park
- Subsidiarity, Federalism and Institutional Competition Three Concepts and their Relevance for Local Administration in Germany / Bernhard Seliger
- Local Government, Direct Democracy and Tax Competition in Switzerland / Robert Nef
- The Possibility of Federalism’s Introduction and Decentralization in Korea / Sang-Kyum Kim
- Federal Structures for a Re-unified Korea / Christian Kirchner
- Outlines of an American Federalist Model for Korean Government after Unification / Bernard Rowan
- The Big Five for Peace, Security and Prosperity on the Korean Peninsula / Walter Klitz

• Congratulatory Message and History