"Our Indian Princess"
Subverting the Stereotype

Nancy Marie Mithlo

School for Advanced Research
Global Indigenous Politics Book
Contents

List of Plates vi
Preface vii

Introduction 1
“Our Little Indian Woman”: Beyond the Squaw/Princess 1

Chapter 1 15
“Imagine Trying to Convince the World You Exist” 15

Chapter 2 43
“They Never Liked the Dark Ones”: Exclusion, Conformity, and Restrictions 43

Chapter 3 75
Born an Artist 75

Chapter 4 100
“Art Stars” and Other “Honorary Whites” 100

Chapter 5 121
“They’ve Got It All Wrong”: Uses and Abuses of Indian Representations 121

Conclusion 145
“I Know What’s Going On” 145

Appendices 154

References 159

Index 173
Plates

Following Page 22

1. Nora Naranjo-Morse: Our Symbols, 2001
2. Tammy Rahr: Wedding Moccasins, 2005
3. Jimmy Goins, 2004
4. Emmi Whitehorse: Nahasdzañ (Earth), 2005
5.a & b Jean LaMarr, with Jack Malotte and youth from the Susanville Indian Rancheria: Our Ancestors, Our Future, 1987

Following Page 86

12.a & b Laura Fragua Cota: Just Because You Put Feathers in Your Hair, Don't Make You an Indian, 1990
15. Laura Fragua Cota: Aboriginal Daughter with Great White Mom and Dad, 1988