Communist and Post-Communist Parties in Europe

Edited by
Uwe Backes and Patrick Moreau

Vandenhoeck & Ruprecht
Contents

Introduction
_Uwe Backes / Patrick Moreau_ 9

I. Western Europe 13

The Disappearance of Communism in the Netherlands
_Gerrit Voerman_ 15

The PDS/Linkspartei.PDS and the Extreme Left – Decline and Renaissance of Communism in Germany
_Patrick Moreau_ 39

France – The Collapse of the House of Communism
_Stéphane Courtois / Dominique Andolfatto_ 87

Communist and Post-Communist Parties in Switzerland after 1989/1990 – A Survey
_Dominik Kamber_ 133

II. Northern Europe 139

Post-Communism and Leftist Parties in Two Scandinavian Countries after 1989 – The Cases of Denmark and Sweden
_Svante Ersson_ 141

Communism in Estonia – Party Dead but Ex-Members Well Off
_Toomas Alatalu_ 167

III. Southern Europe 191

Few but Pure and Good Members are Preferred to a Mass Party – The Portuguese Communist Party’s Continued Orthodoxy
_Carlos Cunha_ 193

The PRC – Emergence and Crisis of the Antagonistic Left
_Simone Bertolino_ 215
The Communist Party of Greece after the Collapse of Communism (1989–2006) -
From Proletarian Internationalism to Ethno-Populism
Nikos Marantzidis

The Communist Party of Cyprus - AKEL
Andreas Stergiou

IV. Eastern Europe

Communist and Post-Communist Parties in the Czech Republic and in Slovakia
Miroslav Mareš

Post-Communist Parties in Poland after 1989
Piotr Sula

A Romanian Tale - The Transition of the Communist Party from Ceaușescu to NATO
Marius Oprea

The Socialist Party of Serbia
Irena Ristić

Ukraine 1991–2006 -
Where Have All the Communists Gone?
Abel Polese

Between Conformity and the Struggle for Political Survival -
The Communist Parties in Belarus
Rudolf A. Mark

The Communist Party of the Russian Federation (CPRF)
Galina Michaleva

V. Transnational Cooperation and Comparison

Transnational Cooperation of Post-Communist Parties
Rudolf van Hüllen

Trade Unions and Communism in Spain, France, and Italy
Dominique Andolfatto
Contents

(Ex-)Communist Elites and State Capture

Patrick Moreau  501

Communism and Neo-Communism in Times of “Globalization”

Yolène Dilas-Rocherieux  523

Conclusion

Uwe Backes / Patrick Moreau  535

Appendix  609

Bibliography  611
Abbreviations  646
Index  653
List of Contributors  660