Approaches to Teaching Teresa of Ávila and the Spanish Mystics

Edited by
Alison Weber

The Modern Language Association of America
New York 2009
CONTENTS

Preface to the Series viii
Acknowledgments ix
Introduction 1

PART ONE: MATERIALS
Alison Weber
Editions
Anthologies in Spanish 17
Editions in Spanish 18
Bilingual Editions and Translations 19

The Instructor’s Library
Reference Works 20
Historical and Literary Studies 21
Religious and Theological Studies 24

Aids to Teaching
Music 25
Internet Resources 26
Illustrated Books 27
Films 28

Teresa in English Translation 30
Amanda Powell

The Language of Teresa of Ávila 39
Emily E. Scida

PART TWO: APPROACHES

Historical Perspectives
Mysticism in History: The Case of Spain’s Golden Age 47
Elizabeth Rhodes

Spanish Mysticism and the Islamic Tradition 57
William Childers

Teresa of Ávila and the Question of Jewish Influence 67
Michael McGaha
Was Teresa of Ávila a Feminist?  74
Bárbara Mujica

After Teresa: Mysticism in Seventeenth-Century Europe  83
Cordula van Wyhe

Theoretical Perspectives

The Mystical Encounter with Extremity: Teaching Teresa through Psychoanalytic Theory  95
Linda Belau

Teaching Spanish Women Mystics with Theories of Autobiography  102
Sherry Velasco

Feminist Epistemology and Pedagogy in Teresa of Ávila  107
Barbara Simerka

Specific Course Contexts

Making Mysticism Accessible to Undergraduates  114
Lisa Vollendorf

Teaching Teresa of Ávila's The Book of Her Life in the Tradition of Western Spiritual Autobiography  123
Carole Slade

Successful Mystics and Failed Mystics: Teaching Teresa of Ávila in the Women’s Studies Classroom  134
Marta V. Vicente

Defiance and Obedience: Reading the Spanish Mystics in Historical Context  142
María del Pilar Ryan

A Transatlantic Perspective: The Influence of Teresa’s Model on New World Women  148
Kathleen Ann Myers

The Creation of Feminist Consciousness: Teaching Teresa of Ávila in a Women Writers Course  157
Alison Weber

Strictly Academic? Teaching Religious Texts in a Secular Setting  166
Ralph Keen

Teaching Teresa as a Theologian  172
Gillian T. W. Ahlgren

Teaching Spanish Mysticism at an Undergraduate Catholic College: Issues of Relevance, Accessibility, and Self-Censorship  181
Dona M. Kercher
CONTENTS

Where's Teresa? The Construction of Teresa of Ávila in the Visual Arts
Christopher C. Wilson 190

Teaching Specific Texts

Reading “Noche oscura” Twice
Howard Mancing 202

Teresa of Ávila and Ignatius of Loyola: A Gender-Based Approach to Spiritual Autobiography
Darcy Donahue 208

Teaching Imagery and Allegory in Teresa of Ávila’s The Interior Castle
Joan Cammarata 218

Teaching Teresa’s Libro de las fundaciones (The Book of Foundations)
Helen H. Reed 225

Comparing Humanist and Mystical Understanding in Luis de Léon’s “Noche serena” and John of the Cross’s “La noche oscura”
Dana Bultman 232

Teaching Luis de León’s Mystical Poetry as Pilgrimage
David H. Darst 240

Mysticism and Early Modern Musical-Cosmological Paradigms
Mario A. Ortiz 247

Notes on Contributors

Survey Participants

Works Cited

Index of Names