Russia’s European Agenda and the Baltic States

Janina Šleivytė
Contents

List of illustrations ix
Acknowledgements x

1 Introduction
1.1 Background 1
1.2 Research methodology 6

2 Russia’s foreign policy under Yeltsin: domestic and international context
2.1 Russia’s statehood: historical context 10
2.2 Yeltsin’s leadership: domestic and international aspects 12
2.3 The National Security Concept and Military Doctrine 13
2.4 Distinct features of Russian foreign policy 16
2.5 Conclusions 29

3 The evolution of Russia’s foreign policy under Putin and Medvedev (2000–8)
3.1 Russia’s power cycle: the Knudsen model 31
3.2 Multi-polarity and Eurasianism 34
3.3 Russia in the post-9/11 security environment 38
3.4 Foreign affairs: from accommodation to revisionist strategy 42
3.5 Russia’s agenda in the post-Soviet space 51
3.6 The NATO-Russia relationship 66
3.7 Defence and security policy 73
3.8 Conclusions 80

4 Russia and Europe
4.1 Russian-European relations: a brief overview 86
4.2 The Kaliningrad puzzle 95