Violent Non-State Actors in World Politics

Edited by

Klejda Mulaj

Columbia University Press
New York
Contents

Foreword vii
Acknowledgements ix
About the Contributors xi
Acronyms xvii

1. Introduction: Violent Non-State Actors: Exploring their State Relations, Legitimation, and Operationality Klejda Mulaj 1
2. Fragmentation of Sovereignty and Violent Non-State Actors in Colombia Nazih Richani 27
3. From VNSAs to Constitutional Politicians: Militarism and Politics in the Irish Republican Army Jonathan Tonge 45
4. The Persistence of Nationalist Terrorism: The Case of ETA Ignacio Sánchez-Cuenca 69
5. The Kosovo Liberation Army and the Intricacies of Legitimacy Klejda Mulaj 93
6. The Rise and Fall of Militant Islamic Groups in Egypt Hassanein Tawfik Ibrahim 115
7. Force of Arms and Hizbullah’s Staying Power in Precarious Lebanon Judith Palmer Harik 137
8. Hamas and the Prospects of De-radicalization Omar Ashour 157
9. Armed Groups and Fragmentation and Globalization in Iraq Eric Herring 181
11. The Role of Sub-National Actors in Afghanistan Amin Saikal 239
| 12. Militia Formation and the 'Nationalization' of Local Conflict in Liberia | Morten Bøås | 257 |
| 13. Understanding the Character and Politics of the Revolutionary United Front in Sierra Leone | Kwesi Aning | 277 |
| 14. UNITA's Insurgency Lifecycle in Angola | Assis Malaquias | 293 |
| 15. Violent Non-State Actors in Sudan | William Reno | 319 |
| 16. Non-State Actors and the Role of Violence in Stateless Somalia | Ken Menkhaus | 343 |
| 17. Liberation Tigers of Tamil Eelam (LTTE): Failed Quest for a 'Homeland' | Syed Rifaat Hussain | 381 |
| 18. Private Military Firms: The Profit Side of VNSAs | Peter W. Singer | 413 |

Index | 467