CULTURE, POWER, AND HISTORY
STUDIES IN CRITICAL SOCIOLOGY

EDITED BY STEPHEN PFOHL,
AIMEE VAN WAGENEN, PATRICIA AREND,
ABIGAIL BROOKS, AND DENISE LECKENBY

Haymarket Books
Chicago, Illinois
Contents

Culture, Power, and History: An Introduction .................................................. 1

Stephen Pfohl and Aimee Van Wagenen

Culture

"Under the Knife and Proud of It." An Analysis of the Normalization of Cosmetic Surgery .................................................. 23

Abigail Brooks

"What Are You Lookin' At?" The Oppositional Gaze, Intersectionality, and the Social Geographies of White Masculinities .................................................. 59

Steven D. Farough

The Commodification of Childhood: Tales from the Advertising Front Lines .................................................. 89

Juliet B. Schor

Movement Impact on Cultural Change .................................................. 103

William A. Gamson

On the Place of Allegory in the Methodological Conventions of a Critical Sociology: A Case Study of Max Weber's Protestant Ethic .... 127

Charles Sarno

An Epistemology of Haunting .................................................. 155

Aimee Van Wagenen

Defining "Radical Indigenism" and Creating an American Indian Scholarship .................................................. 169

Eva Marie Garrouotte

Power

Eyeing the Scene: The Uses and (RE)uses of Surveillance Cameras in an Exotic Dance Club .................................................. 199

R. Danielle Egan

To Build a More Perfect Discipline: Ideologies of the Normative and the Social Control of the Criminal Innocent in the Policing of New York City .................................................. 223

Delario Lindsey
Resisting the Welfare Mother: The Power of Welfare Discourse and Tactics of Resistance ................................................................. 261

Karen McCormack

From Gender as Object to Gender as Verb: Rethinking How Global Restructuring Happens ............................................................... 293

Leslie Salzinger

Viral Power: Arthur and Marilouise Kroker Interviewed by
William Wood .................................................................................. 309

William Wood

History

Black Belts and Ivory Towers: The Place of Race in U.S. Social Thought, 1892–1948 ........................................................................ 325

Davarian L. Baldwin

The Militarization of Inner Space ..................................................... 379

Jackie Orr

It Takes a Movement to Raise an Issue: Media Lessons from the 1997 U.P.S. Strike ................................................................. 411

Charlotte Ryan

(Virtual) Myths ............................................................................... 441

William R. Wood

Geopolitics of Knowledge and Coloniality of Power: Thinking Puerto Rico and Puerto Ricans from the Colonial Difference ............. 479

Ramón Grosfoguel

References ....................................................................................... 507

About the Authors and Editors ....................................................... 545

Index ............................................................................................ 549