Through Cracks in the Wall

Modern Inquisitions and New Christian Letrados in the Iberian Atlantic World

By

Lúcia Helena Costigan

BRILL

LEIDEN • BOSTON
2010
CONTENTS

Acknowledgments ................................................................. ix

Introduction. Portugal, Portuguese America and New Christians:
A Missing Link in Iberian and Colonial Latin American Studies 1
I. The Modern Inquisition in Portugal: A Spanish Imposition 9
II. New Christian letrados and the Inquisition in the Spanish and Portuguese Americas ..................................................... 17

Chapter One. Luis de Carvajal, the Younger, and the Inquisition in New Spain Under Philip II .................................................. 25
I. From Victim of the Holy Office to Transformed Subject .... 28
II. Carvajal's Stand and Mediated Voice in the First Trial
Proceeding ........................................................................... 37
III. Self-Fashioning and Public Voice through Literary Discourse .............................................................................. 43
IV. Carvajal’s Second Trial ...................................................... 56
V. Carvajal’s Letters and Testamento ................................. 70

Chapter Two. Bento Teixeira: A New Christian Caught by the
First Visit of the Inquisition to Brazil ...................................... 79
I. From Poet and School Teacher to Prisoner of the Holy Office .................................................................................. 84
II. In the Cells of the Lisbon Inquisition ............................... 102
III. Bento Teixeira’s Prosopópia: Text and Context .............. 112

Chapter Three. Ambivalent Acts of the Inquisition toward New Christians in the Seventeenth-Century Iberian Domains .. 125
I. Spanish Conversos and Portuguese cristãos-novos in Seventeenth-Century Portuguese America and the Spanish
American Colonies ............................................................... 127
II. Ambrósio Fernandes Brandão and his Diálogos das grandezas do Brasil .............................................................. 136
III. Dawn and Dusk of Brazil as Terra da Promissão ............ 143
IV. Manuel Beckman and the Levante do Maranhão ............ 147
Chapter Four. The Inquisition and Eighteenth-Century Portugal:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>The Case of Antônio José da Silva</th>
<th>159</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>I.  Framing Antônio José da Silva's Case</td>
<td>160</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>II. Glimpses of Antônio José da Silva's life through his First Trial</td>
<td>161</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>III. Embracing Literature and Theater after His First Trial</td>
<td>165</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>IV. From Abjuration to Second Incarceration</td>
<td>169</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>V. Resistance Through Writing</td>
<td>177</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>VI. In Search of Possible Answers</td>
<td>192</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Afterword ............................................................................. 199

Bibliography ........................................................................ 203
Index ...................................................................................... 215