A Panacea for all Seasons?

Civil Society and Governance in Europe

Nomos
Contents

Filip Wijkström
Preface

Matthias Freise, Miikka Pyykkönen, Eglė Vaidelytė
A Panacea for all Seasons? Civil Society and Governance in Europe

I. New roles and relations of civil society and public administration

Miikka Pyykkönen
Governmentalisation of the Civil Society? Power, Governance and Civil Society in Gramsci’s and Foucault’s Analytics of Power

Taco Brandsen
Innovation and institutional legacies – A case study in Dutch Society

Matthias Freise
Parenting Civil Society Organizations by Public Private Partnerships: Case Study Research from Germany

Piotr Romaniuk
Civil Society, Third Sector and Local Self-government: Drawing the Framework for Building the Capacity of Political Transformation in Poland

Stefano Stortone
Participatory Budgeting: Heading Towards a ‘Civil’ Democracy?

Eglė Vaidelytė
Understanding the Philanthropy Phenomenon in Lithuania: Element of Welfare State or Private Initiative?

II. New Trends of Volunteerism and Organizational Practices

Monika Molnar
Civil Society Organizations and the Accountability Movement in I... From Theory to Practice