A. IRVING HALLOWELL

CONTRIBUTIONS to OJIBWE STUDIES

Essays, 1934–1972

Edited and with introductions by Jennifer S. H. Brown and Susan Elaine Gray

UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA PRESS
LINCOLN AND LONDON
CONTENTS

List of Illustrations ............................................................... vii
Series Editors' Introduction .................................................. ix
Editors' Preface ................................................................. xiii
Acknowledgments ............................................................... xix
Editorial History and Procedures .......................................... xxi
Prologue: On Being an Anthropologist ................................. 1

PART ONE  Approaching Ojibwe Culture and Material Life

Introduction ........................................................................... 19
1. The Northern Ojibwa ....................................................... 23
2. Notes on the Northern Range of Zizania [wild rice] in Manitoba ...................................................... 40
3. Rocks and Stones ............................................................. 44
4. Notes on the Material Culture of the Island Lake Saulteaux ......................................................... 51

PART TWO  Marriage and Kinship

Introduction ........................................................................... 67
5. Cross-Cousin Marriage in the Lake Winnipeg Area ............................................................... 71
6. The Incidence, Character, and Decline of Polygyny among the Lake Winnipeg Cree and Saulteaux ......................................................... 86

PART THREE  The Patterning of Experience in Time and Space

Introduction ........................................................................... 111
7. Temporal Orientation in Western Civilization and in a Preliterate Society ..................................................... 115
8. Some Psychological Aspects of Measurement among the Saulteaux ......................................................... 141
9. The Size of Algonkian Hunting Territories: A Function of Ecological Adjustment ......................................................... 158
10. Cultural Factors in Spatial Orientation ........................................ 171
PART FOUR Stress and Anxiety, Fear and Aggression

11. Psychic Stresses and Culture Patterns ........................................ 209
12. Fear and Anxiety as Cultural and Individual
Variables in a Primitive Society ..................................................... 230
13. Freudian Symbolism in the Dream of a Saulteaux Indian .......... 250
14. Shabwán: A Dissocial Indian Girl ............................................. 253
15. Aggression in Saulteaux Society ............................................... 270

PART FIVE In Sickness and in Health

17. Sin, Sex, and Sickness in Saulteaux Belief ................................. 315
18. Psychosexual Adjustment, Personality, and the Good Life in a Nonliterate Culture ................................................. 325
19. Values, Acculturation, and Mental Health .................................. 345

PART SIX Religion, Dreams, and the Spiritual Life

21. The Passing of the Midéwi-win in the Lake
Winnipeg Region ............................................................................. 382
22. Spirits of the Dead in Saulteaux Life and Thought ..................... 406
23. The Role of Dreams in Ojibwa Culture ....................................... 438

PART SEVEN Personality, the Self, and World View

24. The Rorschach Method as an Aid in the Study of Personalities in Primitive Societies ................................................. 475
25. Some Psychological Characteristics of the Northeastern Indians ..................................................................... 486
26. The Ojibwa Self and Its Behavioral Environment .................... 520
27. Ojibwa Ontology, Behavior, and World View .......................... 535

Glossary of Ojibwe Words and Names Used by Hallowell .............. 569
Source Acknowledgments ................................................................. 607
Index ............................................................................................... 613