GRAY H. WHALEY

Oregon and the Collapse of Illahee

U.S. Empire and the Transformation of an Indigenous World, 1792–1859

The University of North Carolina Press  Chapel Hill
Contents

PREFACE Reconstructing an American Colonial History ix

Acknowledgments xi

1 INTRODUCTION: Historical Constructions of Oregon and Illahee 3

2 So Many Little Sovereignties, 1792–1822 19

3 Disastrous Times We Had: Expansions and Epidemic, 1821–1834 71

5 Trophies for God: From Mission Colony to American Colony, 1840–1845 125

6 The Colonization of Illahee, 1843–1851 161

7 Polaklie Illahee (Land of Darkness): Identity and Genocidal Culture in Oregon 191

8 Extermination and Empire: Money, Politics, and the Oregon Wars, 1855–1856 217

9 CONCLUSION: Illahee, "Indian Colonies," and the Paternalist State 227

Notes 241 Bibliography 277 Index 297