The Call of the Homeland

Diaspora Nationalisms, Past and Present

Edited by

ALLON GAL
ATHENA S. LEOUSSI
ANTHONY D. SMITH

BRILL

LEIDEN • BOSTON

2010
CONTENTS

Acknowledgements ................................................................. vii
Notes on the Contributors ..................................................... ix
Introduction ............................................................................. xv

PART I
CHARTING THE HISTORICAL EXPERIENCE AND THEORETICAL FRONTIERS OF DIASPORA NATIONALISMS

Diasporas and Homelands in History: The Case of the Classic Diasporas ........................................................... 3
Anthony D. Smith

Beyond the Homeland: From Exilic Nationalism to Diasporic Transnationalism .................................................. 27
Khachig Tótoyan

Contemporary Diasporas, Nationalism, and Transnationalism Politics ..................................................... 47
Chantal Bordes-Benayoun

PART II
CLASSIC DIASPORAS IN THE TWENTY-FIRST CENTURY

Diaspora’s Liberal Nationalism and the Call of the Homeland: The American Jewish Case ...................... 61
Allon Gal

American Jewish Identity and New Patterns of Philanthropy ........................................................................... 81
Chaim I. Waxman

Imagining Armenia ............................................................... 105
Simon Payaslian

From Greek-Orthodox Diaspora to Transnational Hellenism: Greek Nationalism and the Identities of the Diaspora ....................................................................... 139
Víctor Roudometof
PART III
THE CALL OF THE HOMELAND:
MODERN CASES OF DIASPORA NATIONALISM

Diaspora, the Irish, and Irish Nationalism .......................... 169
  Donald Harman Akenson

Diaspora Nationalism: The Turkish Case ............................ 219
  Jacob M. Landau

Cry for an Endangered Homeland? The Contours of Sikh Diasporic Nationalism since 1984 ....................... 241
  Darshan S. Tatla

The Ukrainian Diaspora .................................................. 289
  Wsevolod W. Isajiw

PART IV
THE RELIGIOUS DYNAMICS OF HEIMAT
AND DISPERSAL

Diaspora Consciousness, Nationalism, and ‘Religion’:
  The Case of Hindu Nationalism ..................................... 323
    John Zavos

Homeland and Diaspora: The Case of Pentecostalism ...... 345
    David Martin

“Muslim Nationalism” and the Politics of Otherness in the Age of Neo-Diaspora ........................................ 363
    Rivka Yadlin

Index ................................................................. 393