Activism and Rhetoric
Theories and Contexts for Political Engagement

SUB Hamburg

Edited by
Seth Kahn and JongHwa Lee
Contents

List of Contributors viii
Foreword xiv
PHILIP C. WANDER

Preface xxiii
Acknowledgements

Introduction 1
SETH KAHN AND JONGHWA LEE

PART I
(Re)Framing Activism and Rhetoric: How Activists Theorize Rhetoric and Vice Versa 9

1 The Only Conceivable Thing To Do: Reflections on Academics and Activism 11
DANA L. CLOUD

2 “Go Back to America and Let Them Know”: Reflections on Activist Scholarship 25
JONGHWA LEE

3 The Work of a Middle-Class Activist: Stuck in History 37
CHARLES BAZERMAN

4 Speaking Truth to Power: Observations from Experience 47
LEE ARTZ

5 Gadugi: Where the Fire Burns 56
ELLEN CUSHMAN

6 Intervention and Rhetorics of War: Classical Insights for Contemporary Activists 62
MELISSA DEY HASBROOK
PART II
Contexts for Rhetorical Activism, Part One: Activism in Non-Academic Settings

7 A Conservative Pundit in Liberal Surroundings: An Uneven Odyssey
   RICHARD E. VATZ 75

8 The Role of Communism in Democratic Discourse: What Activist Rhetoricians Can Learn from the World Bank
   CATHERINE CHAPUT 81

9 (Re)Politicizing the Writing Process: An Exhortation and a Cautionary Tale
   SETH KAHN 91

10 Looking for the Left in Russia
    KATHLEEN FEYH 100

PART III
Contexts for Rhetorical Activism, Part Two: Activism within Academic Institutions

11 Developing Activist Rhetorics on Israel–Palestine: Resisting the Depoliticization of the American Academy
   MATTHEW ABRAHAM 115

12 Democracy and the Academy: Ethnographic Articulations and Interventions for Social Change
   PAIGE P. EDLEY AND NINA MARIA LOZANO-REICH 125

13 Against Decorous Civility: Acting as if You Live in a Democracy
   M.J. BRAUN 137

14 You Can’t Get There from Here: Higher Education, Labor Activism, and Challenges of Neoliberal Globalization
   KEVIN MAHONEY 147

PART IV
Contexts for Rhetorical Activism, Part Three: Activist Pedagogy

15 Practicing Democracy: An Experience-Based Approach
   RUTH E. RAY, GWEN GORZELSKY, STEPHANIE HALL-STURGIS, LAWANDA DICKENS, THOMAS TRIMBLE, KIM DAVIS, KAREN KEATON JACKSON, JUSTIN VIDOVIC, AND SALLY CHANDLER 159
16 Breaking News: Armchair Activists Access Their Power
  SHELLEY DEBLASIS AND TERESA GRETTANO 170

17 Activism in the Ivory Tower: Finding Hope for Academic Prose
  REBECCA JONES 179

18 Reclaiming Activism for Students
  AMY PASON 190

Postscript to Chapter 7
  RICHARD E. VATZ 198

Index 199