Civicness in the Governance and Delivery of Social Services
Contents

Taco Brandsen, Paul Dekker and Adalbert Evers
Civicness in the governance and delivery of social services

Paul Dekker
Civicness: from civil society to civic services?

Adalbert Evers
Civicness, civility and their meanings for social services

Taco Brandsen
Civicness in organizations: a reflection on the relationship between professionals and managers

Evelien Tonkens
Civicness and citizen participation in social services: conditions for promoting respect and public concern

Victor Pestoff
Civicness and the co-production of social services in Sweden

Kai Leichsenring
Introducing civicness in steering and managing social services. Cases from long-term care

Ota de Leonardis
Organization matters: contracting for service provision and civicness

Stéphane Nassaut and Marthe Nyssens
Civicness and service governance: the case of the Belgian quasi-market in the field of proximity services
Håkon Lorentzen
Civicness and ownership. Volunteer Centers between state and civil society 181

Michaela Neumayr and Michael Meyer
In search of civicness: an empirical investigation of service delivery, public advocacy, and community building by civil society organizations 201

Silvia Ferreira
Researching civicness contexts and conditions: the case of the Portuguese welfare mix in social services 227

Bernard Enjolras
Between market and civic governance regimes: civicness in the governance of social services in Europe 249

Janet Newman
Civicness and the paradoxes of contemporary governance 273

Index 285

Authors 289