Understanding Third World Politics

Theories of Political Change and Development

Third Edition

B. C. Smith

INDIANA University Press
Bloomington & Indianapolis
Contents

List of Tables and Figures  xi

Preface  xii

1 The Idea of a ‘Third World’  1
   A definition  1
   Political independence  1
   National incomes  5
   Industrialization  7
   Integration into the world economy  8
   Human development  10
   The concept of a ‘third’ world  15
   Meanings and objectives  16
   Changing worlds  19
   Conclusion: Third World values  24

2 Modernization and Political Development  27
   Social evolution  27
   From tradition to modernity  28
   The organic metaphor  29
   Structure and function  29
   The political system  31
   Political change  37
   The contribution of modernization theory  41
   The problem of ‘tradition’  42
   Secularization and religion  44
   Dichotomous models  46
   The concept of ‘integration’  47
   Unilinearity  49
   Ethnocentricity  50
   Change and causality  51
   Biological analogies  52
   Definitions  53
   Changes of emphasis  54
   Conclusion  55
Contents

3 The Politics of Neo-Colonialism and Dependency

- Constitutional independence 56
- The politics of neo-colonialism 57
- The political power of external interests 59
- Comprador elites 60
- Aid dependency 62
- The independent state and political forces 65
- Dependency theory 68
- The elements of dependency theory 70
- Dependency and economic performance 74
- Dependency and class 75
- Levels of generality 76
- Hierarchy 77
- The political significance of independence 78
- Dependency and democratization 79
- Conclusion 80

4 The State and Politics in the Third World

- Controversies 82
- The pluralist political system 83
- The post-colonial state 87
- The Bonapartist state: Pakistan 91
- The Bonapartist state: Tanzania 92
- An overdeveloped bureaucratic state 94
- The bureaucratic-authoritarian state 96
- State-society dialectics 98
- Globalization and the nation state 101
- Conclusion 105

5 Political Parties and Party Systems

- Mass mobilization 108
- The role of political parties 109
- Party ideology 111
- Party systems 114
- Single party systems 115
- The demise of party government 120
- Party systems and democratization 121
- The survival of parties as organizations 124
- Factionalism and clientelism 127
- Conclusion 129

6 Bureaucracy and Political Power

- The challenge of bureaucracy 130
- Concepts of bureaucracy 132
Contents

The political power of bureaucracy 135
Bureaucracy and access 140
A ruling class 143
Reducing bureaucracy 145
Conclusion 149

7 Military Intervention in Politics 151
Introduction 151
Explaining military intervention 152
Forms of intervention 154
The coup d'état 157
Social mobility and military intervention 159
The military and the middle class 161
Economic development and military intervention 163
The political culture 164
Organizational factors 165
Foreign influence 168
The military and democratization 169
Conclusion 173

8 Nationalism and the Politics of Secession 174
Introduction 174
Secession 175
Responses to secession 177
Nationalism 178
Political integration 182
Internal colonialism 184
The balance of advantage 189
Élites and class 193
Conclusion 196

9 Instability and Revolution 197
Introduction 197
Conceptual difficulties 198
Affluence and poverty 200
The rate of growth 203
The revolution of rising expectations 205
Foreign influences 207
Ethnicity 207
The political culture 209
Inequality 211
Class conflict 215
A crisis of state authority 216
Contents

Political institutionalization 217
Revolution in the Third World 219
Conclusion 222

10 Democratization in the Third World 224
Introduction: the ‘third wave’ and the Third World 224
Concepts of ‘democracy’ 225
The transition to democracy 226
The variability of transition 230
The consolidation of democracy 233
The economic preconditions of democratic consolidation 234
Political mediation 237
The political culture 238
Civil society and democratization 240
The balance of power 242
Institutional development 244
Foreign influence 247
Conclusion 248

11 Conclusion: Democracy and Development 250
Democracy and modernization 250
Democracy and development 250
The developmental democratic state 256
Democratic stability 259
External influences and democracy 260

Bibliography 263
Index 291