JAY ROWELL AND MICHEL MANGENOT
EDITORS

A POLITICAL SOCIOLOGY
OF THE EUROPEAN UNION

Reassessing constructivism

MANCHESTER UNIVERSITY PRESS
Manchester and New York

distributed in the United States exclusively by Palgrave Macmillan
CONTENTS

List of contributors
List of figures, tables and boxes
List of abbreviations
Preface: Revitalising EU studies through constructivism

Andy Smith

Introduction: What Europe constructs: towards a sociological constructivism

Michel Mangenot and Jay Rowell

Part I The construction of European fields

1 Making top civil servants: Europeanness as an identity and a resource

Didier Georgakakis and Marine de Lassalle

2 The invention and transformation of a governmental body: the Council Secretariat

Michel Mangenot

3 Lawyers as Europe’s middlemen: a sociology of litigants pleading before the European Court of Justice

Christele Marchand and Antoine Vauchez

4 The emergence of ‘European’ careers in subnational French administrations

Marine de Lassalle

Part II The social construction of European problems

5 Constitutional activism and fundamental rights in Europe: common interests through transnational socialisation

Laurent Scheeck

6 The construction of a European interest through legal expertise: property owners’ associations and the Charter of Fundamental Rights

Hélène Michel
7 A constructivist-institutionalist approach to EU politics: the case of Protected Geographical Indications for food
   Andy Smith

   8 The European Parliament and the politicisation of the European space: the case of the two port packages
   Willy Beauvallet

Part III  Constructing reality through policy instruments

9 From integration by law to Europeanisation by numbers: the making of a ‘competitive Europe’ through intergovernmental benchmarking
   Isabelle Bruno

10 From instruments to the instrumentalisation of ‘European opinion’: a historical sociology of the measurement of opinions and the management of the public space
   Philippe Aldrin

11 Expert measurement in the government of lifelong learning
   Romuald Normand

12 The instrumentation of European disability policy: constructing a policy field with numbers
   Jay Rowell

Index