Unrecognized States in the International System

SUB Hamburg

Edited by Nina Caspersen and Gareth Stansfield
Contents

List of illustrations vii
Notes on contributors ix
Acknowledgements xi

Introduction: unrecognized states in the international system 1
NINA CASPERSEN AND GARETH STANSFIELD

PART I
Conceptualizing unrecognized states 9

1 Theorizing unrecognized states: sovereignty, secessionism, and political economy 11
JAMES HARVEY AND GARETH STANSFIELD

2 Complex terrains: unrecognized states and globalization 27
MATAN CHOREV

3 International actions and the making and unmaking of unrecognized states 41
KLEJDA MULAJ

4 What do unrecognized states tell us about sovereignty? 58
STACY CLOSSON

PART II
The interactions of the recognized and the unrecognized state 71

5 States without sovereignty: imitating democratic statehood 73
NINA CASPERSEN
Contents

6 After the war ends: violence and viability of post-Soviet unrecognized states
   KRISTIN M. BAKKE 90

7 'Separatism is the mother of terrorism': internationalizing the security discourse on unrecognized states
   PÅL KOLSTØ AND HELGE BLAKKISRUD 110

8 The foreign policies of unrecognized states
   FRANCIS OWTRAM 128

PART III
Conflict management and unrecognized states 145

9 The limits of international conflict management in the case of Abkhazia and South Ossetia
   STEFAN WOLFF 147

10 The politics of unrecognized states and the business of international peace mediation: enablers or hindrance for conflict resolution?
   ANTJE HERRBERG 165

11 Reintegrating unrecognized states: internationalizing frozen conflicts
   LIAM ANDERSON 183

Appendix: maps of unrecognized states 207

Bibliography 227
Index 246