The Gender Imperative
Human Security vs State Security

Editors
Betty A. Reardon
Asha Hans
Contents

Foreword by Ingeborg Breines  ix

Introduction — Challenging Patriarchal Violence  1

Section 1 — Confronting the Militarized State

Security Paradigm: Human Security from a Feminist Perspective

   Betty A. Reardon

2. Gendered Insecurity under Long-term Military Presence: The Case of Okinawa  38
   Kozue Akibayashi and Suzuyo Takazato

   Bernedette Muthien

Section 2 — Patriarchal Conditioning to Violence and Human Insecurity

4. Challenging the Patriarchal National Security Paradigm: The Role of Ethiopian Women in Peace and Security  87
   Mesfin G. Ayele

5. War and Armed Conflict: Threat to African Women’s Human Security  110
   Fatuma Ahmed Ali

6. Sexual Violence and Genocide, the Greatest Violation of Human Security: Responses to the Case of Darfur  138
   Lisa S. Price

7. Security Discourses: A Gender Perspective  173
   Michele W. Milner
Section 3 — Militarization/Demilitarization: Eroding and Promoting Human Security

8. Seeking Human Security in a Militarized Pacific: Struggles for Peace and Security by Pacific Island Women
   Ronni Alexander 197

   Rev. Chloe Breyer 230

10. Opposing Militarism: Soldiers’ Mothers in Russia
    Valerie Zawilski 255

Section 4 — Alternative and Transitional Approaches to Human Security

    Soumita Basu 287

12. Jordanian Women’s Concepts of Human Security
    Norma Nemeh 317

13. Gender, Health, Peace and Security
    Albie Sharpe 351

14. An Experiment in Transition from Military to Human Security
    Asha Hans 384

Conclusion — Framing a Gender and Human Security Discourse: Initiating the Inquiry

Annexure: Security Council Resolutions 1325 and 1820

Notes on Editors

Notes on Contributors

Index