A Prehistory of North America

Mark Q. Sutton
CONTENTS

List of Maps xv
Preface xvi
Acknowledgments xviii

Chapter 1 Introduction 1
The Study of the Past 3
North America Defined 6
   The Climate of North America 9
Broad Periods in North American Prehistory 11
A Very Brief History of Archaeology in North America 12
   Speculation 12
   Discovery and Description 12
   Chronologies and Culture Histories 13
   Toward Explanation 14
   New Approaches and Methods 15
   Some Current Issues 15

Chapter 2 How and When: Peopling the New World 18
Pleistocene Geography and Environment 20
   Some Important Pleistocene Animals 22
Issues in Dating 22
The Origins of Native Americans 23
Where Did the Paleoindians Come From? 24
   Linguistic Evidence 24
   Biological Evidence: Morphology 24
   Biological Evidence: DNA 24
   Archaeological Evidence 25
How Did the Paleoindians Get into the New World? 25
   A Land Route? 26
   AN ICE-FREE CORRIDOR? 27
   A Coastal Route? 27
How Many Migrations Were There? 29
   Linguistic and Genetic Clues 29
   Skeletal Data 30
   Archaeological Evidence 33
When Did People Arrive in the New World?  33

The Clovis First Model  33
  A Very Rapid Colonization  33
  A Clovis Overkill?  34

The Pre-Clovis Model  35
  A Very Early Entry  35
  A Later Pre-Clovis Entry  35

Evaluating the Evidence  36
  Genetic Clues  36
  The Evidence from Northeast Asia  37
    Environmental Conditions  37
    The Archaeological Evidence  37
  The Archaeological Evidence from Alaska  38
    The Nenana Complex  39
    The Denali Complex  39
    The Mesa Complex  39
    Discussion  39
  The North American Evidence  40
    Meadowcroft Rockshelter  41
    Pre-Clovis Mammoth Hunting?  42
    Cactus Hill  43
    Topper  44

- Highlight 2.1 Pre-Clovis Poop?  44
  Few Other Sites  44
  The Iberian Connection  45

The South American Evidence  46
  Monte Verde  46
  Pedra Furada Rockshelter  47
  Discussion  48

Where Are We Now?  48

Chapter 3  A Paleoindian Continent  51

The Clovis Complex  51
  Environment During Clovis Times  53
  Clovis Technology  54
  Clovis Adaptations  55

- Highlight 3.1 Comet! A Clovis Killer?  57

Later Paleoindian Cultures  58
  A Paleocoastal Tradition?  58
  Paleoindians in Western North America  58
  Paleoindians on the Plains  60
    The Folsom Complex  60
    The Midland Complex  62
Contents

The Plano Complex 62
The Cody Complex 63
Paleoindians in Eastern North America 64
The Transition to the Archaic 66
New Migrations 66

Chapter 4 Whales and Sleds: The Arctic 68
Geography and Environment 68
A Brief History of Research 70
Major Themes in Arctic Prehistory 70
Prehistory of the Western Arctic 71
  The Paleoindian Period 71
  The Paleoarctic Tradition 71
  The Ocean Bay Tradition 73
  The Aleutian Tradition 73
  The Kodiak Tradition 74
  The Arctic Small Tool Tradition 75
  The Norton Tradition 75
  □ Highlight 4.1 Cape Krusenstern and the Old Whaling Culture 76
  The Thule 77
Prehistory of the Eastern Arctic 79
  The Pre-Dorset 79
  Saqqaq 80
  Independence I 81
  Independence II 82
  The Dorset 82
  □ Highlight 4.2 Dorset Art 84
  The Thule Expansion into the Eastern Arctic 85
  □ Highlight 4.3 The Inuit and the Norse 86
Native Arctic Cultures at Contact 88
Further Reading 89

Chapter 5 Salmon and Potlatches: The Northwest Coast 90
Geography and Environment 90
A Brief History of Research 92
  □ Highlight 5.1 Glacial Discoveries 92
Major Themes in Northwest Coast Prehistory 93
  □ Highlight 5.2 The Potlatch 93
The Late Pleistocene 131
  The Clovis Complex 131
  A Paleocoastal Tradition?  133
The Pleistocene-Holocene Transition  133
The Early Holocene  136
  □ Highlight 7.2 The Millingstone Phenomenon  136
  Northern California  137
  The Central and Southern Coasts  137
  The Sparsely Occupied Interior  139
The Middle Holocene  139
  Acorns and Salmon in Northern California  140
  Mortars and Shellmounds of the Central Coast  140
  More Millingstones in Southern California  141
  □ Highlight 7.3 The Western Nexus  142
  The Beginnings of Intensification: The Central Valley and Mountains  142
  The Hot Colorado Desert  144
The Late Holocene  144
  Increasing Complexity: Northern California and the Central Coast  145
  Money and Chiefdoms: The Santa Barbara Region  146
    THE DEVELOPMENT OF CHIEFDOMS  146
  Takic Expansion: Coastal Southern California  147
  More Acorns in the Sierra Nevada  147
  Growth and Elaboration in the Central Valley  149
  “Lake” Times in the Colorado Desert  149
Baja California  150
  The Early Occupation of Baja California  150
  Southern Baja California  151
  Central Baja California  152
  Northern Baja California  152
Native Californian Cultures at Contact  153
Further Reading  153

Chapter 8 Marshes and Deserts: The Great Basin  154
Geography and Environment  154
A Brief History of Research  156
Major Themes in Great Basin Prehistory  158
The Paleoindian Period  159
The Paleoarchaic Period  162
Contents

The Archaic 163
- The Early Archaic 163
- The Middle Archaic 165
  - Highlight 8.1 Gatecliff Shelter 166
  - Highlight 8.2 Grasshoppers for Dinner Again? 169
- The Late Archaic 170
  - Highlight 8.3 Lovelock Cave 172
A Numic Expansion 173

The Formative: Agricultural Societies of the Great Basin 175
- The Virgin Anasazi 175
- The Fremont 175
  - Fremont Origins 177
  - Fremont Economy and Organization 177
  - What Happened to the Fremont? 178

The Mojave Desert 179
Native Great Basin Cultures at Contact 181
Further Reading 182

Chapter 9: Pithouses and Pueblos: The Southwest 183

- Geography and Environment 184
- A Very Brief History of Research 185
- Major Themes in Southwestern Prehistory 187
- The Paleoindian Period 187
- The Archaic 189
  - Highlight 9.1 Mesoamerican Influences in the Southwest 190
  - The Western Archaic 190
  - Highlight 9.2 Split-Twig Figurines 192
- The Northern Archaic 193
- The Southern Archaic 193
- The Advent of Agriculture 194

- The Ancestral Pueblosans (Anasazi) 195
  - The Basketmakers 197
    - Basketmaker II 197
    - Basketmaker III 199
  - The Puebloans 199
    - Pueblo I 200
    - Highlight 9.3 The Virgin Anasazi 200
    - Pueblo II 201
    - The Chaco Phenomenon 201
Contents

- Highlight 9.4 Cannibalism! 204
- Highlight 9.5 The Sinagua 205
  - Pueblo III 207
  - Pueblo IV 209
  - Pueblo V 209

The Mogollon 210
- The Pithouse Period 211
- The Classic Period 212
- The Postclassic Period 212
- The Aggregation Period 212
- The Late Period 214
- Highlight 9.6 Mimbres 214
- Highlight 9.7 Paquimé and the Casas Grandes World 215

The Hohokam 217
- The Early Agricultural Hohokam 219
- The Pioneer Period 220
- The Colonial Period 220
- The Sedentary Period 220
- The Classic Period 221
- The Postclassic Period and Beyond 222
- Highlight 9.8 The Salado Enigma 222

The Patayan 223
- Native Southwestern Cultures at Contact 224
- Further Reading 225

Chapter 10 Following Bison: The Great Plains 226
- Geography and Environment 226
- A Brief History of Research 228
- Major Themes in Plains Prehistory 228
- The Paleoindian Period 229
- The Archaic 230
  - The Northern High Plains 232
    - Early Archaic 232
    - Highlight 10.1 Head-Smashed-In Bison Jump Site 233
      - The Middle Archaic 234
      - The Late Archaic 236
      - The Late Prehistoric 236
  - The Central and Southern High Plains 237
    - Early Mobile Foraging 237
    - Late Mobile Foraging 237
Chapter 11  Corn and Villages: The Northeast  249

Geography and Environment  249
A Brief History of Research  251
Major Themes in Northeast Prehistory  252
The Paleoindian Period  252
  The Early Paleoindian Period  252
  The Middle Paleoindian Period  253
  The Late Paleoindian Period  254
The Archaic  255
  The Early Archaic  255
  The Middle Archaic  255
  The Late Archaic  257
    THE LAKE FOREST ARCHAIC  258
  Highlight 11.1  The Old Copper Complex  258
    THE NARROW POINT ARCHAIC  259
  Highlight 11.2  The Red Ochre Burials  260
    THE LATE MARITIME ARCHAIC  261
  Highlight 11.3  The Development of Indigenous Agriculture in Eastern North America  261
The Woodland Tradition  262
  The Early Woodland  263
    THE ADENA COMPLEX  263
    OTHER EARLY WOODLAND DEVELOPMENTS  265
  The Middle Woodland  265
    THE HOPEWELL  266
The Late Woodland  270
FORT ANCIENT  270
THE IROQUOIAN LATE WOODLAND  271
Highlight 11.4 The Moatfield Ossuary  272
OTHER LATE WOODLAND GROUPS  272
Highlight 11.5 The Oneota Tradition  273

Further Reading  274

Chapter 12  Mounds and Towns: The Southeast  275

Geography and Environment  275
A Brief History of Research  277
Major Themes in Southeastern Prehistory  278
The Paleoindian Period  278
The Archaic  280
The Early Archaic  280
The Middle Archaic  282
Highlight 12.1 The Shell Mound Archaic  282
The Late Archaic  283
POVERTY POINT  284
The Woodland Tradition  287
The Early Woodland  288
The Middle Woodland  288
THE HOPEWELL IN THE SOUTHEAST  289
OTHER MIDDLE WOODLAND CULTURES  289
The Late Woodland  290

The Mississippian Tradition  290
The Structure of Mississippian Societies  291
MISSISSIPPIAN SOCIOPOLITICAL ORGANIZATION  291
Highlight 12.2 The State of the State  292
THE MISSISSIPPIAN ECONOMY  292
MISSISSIPPIAN IDEOLOGY  293

The Rise of Mississippian Polities  294
EMERGENT MISSISSIPPIAN  294
MIDDLE MISSISSIPPIAN  295
LATE MISSISSIPPIAN  295
Highlight 12.3 The Southeastern Ceremonial Complex  296
SOME MISSISSIPPIAN POLITIES  296
Cahokia  296
The Caddo  299
Moundville  300
Etowah  303
Chapter 13  Moose and Fish: The Subarctic  308
Geography and Environment  308
A Brief History of Research  309
Major Themes in Subarctic Prehistory  310
The Paleoindian Period  311
The Paleoarctic  312
   The Arctic Small Tool Tradition  312
   Pre-Dorset  312
The Northern Archaic  312
The Shield Archaic  314
   The Taltheilei Tradition  314
The Shield Woodland  315
Native Subarctic Cultures at Contact  315
Further Reading  317

Chapter 14  Epilogue: After Prehistory  318
Outside Contacts with Native Americans  319
The Impact of European Contact  320
   The Spanish Mission System  321
   European Diseases and Population Decline  321
A Few Examples of Contact Studies  322
   Gender and the Dakota  322
Cultures in Contact: Colony Ross, California  323

Glossary  324
References  332
Credits  403
Index  404