

SOB Hamburg

A 2011/ 7346

George Lipsitz

How Racism Takes Place

TEMPLE UNIVERSITY PRESS
Philadelphia

Contents

Introduction: Race, Place, and Power	1
SECTION I Social Imaginaries and Social Relations
1 The White Spatial Imaginary	25
2 The Black Spatial Imaginary	51
SECTION II Spectatorship and Citizenship
3 Space, Sports, and Spectatorship in St. Louis	73
4 The Crime The Wire Couldn't Name: Social Decay and Cynical Detachment in Baltimore	95
A Bridge for This Book Weapons of the Weak and Weapons of the Strong	115
SECTION III Visible Archives
5 Horace Tapscott and the World Stage in Los Angeles	131
6 John Biggers and Project Row Houses in Houston	149

SECTION IV Invisible Archives

- 7 Betye Saar's Los Angeles and Paule Marshall's Brooklyn 169
- 8 Something Left to Love: Lorraine Hansberry's Chicago 191

SECTION V Race and Place Today

- 9 New Orleans Today: We Know This Place 211
- 10 A Place Where Everybody Is Somebody 238
- Notes 257
- Acknowledgments 291
- Index 293