Conflict Management and Dispute Settlement in East Asia

Edited by

RAMSES AMER
Stockholm University, Sweden

and

KEYUAN ZOU
University of Central Lancashire, Preston, UK

ASHGATE
Contents

List of Figures and Tables vii
Acknowledgements ix
List of Editors and Contributors xi

PART I: INTRODUCTION

1. Conflict Management and Dispute Settlement in East Asia: A Multi-Disciplinary Approach
   Ramses Amer and Zou Keyuan
   Page 3

PART II: FRAMEWORK OF CONFLICT MANAGEMENT AND DISPUTE SETTLEMENT

2. Conflict Management in East Asia
   Hari Singh
   Page 17

3. The Conflict Management Framework of the Association of Southeast Asian Nations (ASEAN)
   Ramses Amer
   Page 39

PART III: CONFLICT MANAGEMENT AT THE REGIONAL LEVEL

4. Conflict Management in the Southern Philippines and its Implications for Regionalism
   Johan Saravanamuttu
   Page 65

5. The Role of External Actors in Managing Peace Processes in Asia: An Overview of Attempts in Aceh, Mindanao and Sri Lanka
   Malin Åkebo
   Page 83

   Gabriel Jonsson
   Page 107

   Jenny Clegg
   Page 127
PART IV: MANAGEMENT OF MARITIME CONFLICT AND DISPUTES

8  China and Maritime Boundary Delimitation: Past, Present and Future
    Zou Keyuan 149

9  Vietnam and Maritime Delimitation
    Nguyen Hong Thao 171

10 Hainan's Role in the Management of the South China Sea Issues: A Case Study of the Gulf of Tonkin
    Kang Baiying and Li Jianwei 201

Index 221