Contents

Foreword by Richard H. Solomon ................................................................. ix
Acknowledgments ............................................................ xiii
Contributors ........................................................................ xv

Part I The Global Context
1. The Mosaic of Global Conflict Management .............................. 3
   Chester A. Crocker, Fen Osler Hampson, and Pamela Aall
2. Global Conflict Management and the Pursuit of Peace ............... 25
   Gilles Andréani
3. Regional Approaches to Conflict Management ............................ 49
   Paul D. Williams and Jürgen Haacke
4. Culture Counts: A Diplomatic Perspective on Culture and Regional Conflict Management ...................................................... 75
   Nigel Quinney

Part II Regional Reviews
   Chrysantus Ayangafac and Jackkie Cilliers
6. Identifying and Responding to Africa’s Security Challenges ...... 149
   Kwesi Aning
7. The Middle East: Regional Security Institutions and Their Capacities ................................................................................... 171
   Anoushiravan Ehteshami
8. Israel: Shifting National Security Challenges and Responses ...... 199
   Itamar Rabinovich
9. The Imported, Supported, and Homegrown Security of the Arab World ................................................................. 221
   Bassma Kodmani
10. Play It Again, Uncle Sam: Transatlantic Relations, NATO, and the European Union ........................................ 253
   Chantal de Jonge Oudraat

   Alyson J. K. Bailes

12. Russia and Central Asia .................................................. 305
   Oksana Antonenko

13. Expanding Circles of Engagement: India and South Asia ........ 351
   Meenakshi Gopinath

   Richard A. Bitzinger and Barry Desker

15. East Asia and Its Evolving Security Architecture ................. 415
   Hitoshi Tanaka and Adam P. Liff

16. Institutional Mechanisms for Conflict Resolution in South America .................................................. 437
   Monica Herz

17. Security Challenges and Threats in the Caribbean ................ 463
   Hilton A. McDavid

18. Regional Security and Conflict Management in the Americas:
   Terrorism from Without, Drugs and Conventional Thugs from Within .................................................. 483
   John W. Graham

19. Security Challenges in Mexico and Central America ............. 501
   Raül Benítez Manaut and Ricardo Córdova Macías

Part III Conclusion

20. Regional Security through Collective Conflict Management .... 529
   Chester A. Crocker, Fen Osler Hampson, and Pamela Aall

Index ................................................................. 557
Illustrations

Figures
14.1 Asia-Pacific Regional Security Architecture .......................... 407
15.1 Proposed Security Framework for the East Asia Summit ........... 435
19.1 Assassinations Attributed to Organized Crime in Mexico
by Year, 2001–09 ......................................................... 510

Tables
1.1 Countries Most and Least Concerned about Specific Global
Dangers by Percentage of Population .................................. 11
3.1 Major Regional Arrangements with Security Provision,
1945–2009 ................................................................. 51
3.2 Examples of Peace Operations Conducted by Regional
Arrangements since 1990 ............................................... 59
6.1 Effect of Drug Trafficking on Public Institutions in West Africa ................................................................. 157
10.1 NATO and EU Member States, 2010 ................................. 266
11.1 Measures of Military Effort for Selected EU Member States ... 291
19.1 Basic Economic and Social Information for Mexico and Central America ........................................................... 502
19.2 Mexico’s Military Expenditures as a Percentage of Total
Federal Expenditure by Administration, 1935–94 .................... 505
19.3 Central America: Homicides per 100,000 Inhabitants,
2000–08 ................................................................. 517
19.4 Public Perceptions of Main Problems in Central America
by Country and Percentage, 2004 and 2006 ......................... 518
20.1 The Sources of and Obstacles to Collective Conflict
Management by Region ............................................... 539
20.2 Differing Approaches to Conflict and Security Management ... 546