Routledge Handbook of Diplomacy and Statecraft

Edited by B.J.C. McKercher
List of illustrations ix
Contributors x
Prologue: the international order and the new century xv
B.J.C. McKercher

PART I
The Context of Diplomacy 1

1 Diplomatic history: a new appraisal 3
   Jeremy Black

2 Theorising diplomacy 15
   Christer Jönsson

PART II
The Great Powers 29

3 The United States: the contemporary world’s indispensable nation? 31
   James M. Scott

4 The foreign policy of Great Britain 43
   Christoph Bluth

5 Unravelling the enigma: Russian foreign policy in the twenty-first century 53
   Jeffrey Mankoff

6 China: Great Power rising 64
   Robert D’A. Henderson

7 France: exercising power and influence across the ages 76
   Paul P. Vallet
Contents

8 German foreign policy mirrored in the achievements and shortcomings of its chancellors 87
   Christian Hacke

9 Japan's diplomacy and culture 96
   Alexander Bukh

PART III
The Middle Powers 107

10 Brazil: making room at the main table 109
   Sean W. Burges

11 Indian statecraft struggles to come to terms with India's rise 120
   Harsh V. Pant

12 Contemporary Canadian foreign policy: a middle Power in a Great Power world 131
   Stéphane Roussel

13 The Czech Republic: the domestic limits to foreign-policy effectiveness 143
   Dan Marek and Michael Baun

14 The foreign policy of Turkey 155
   Dimitris Keridis

PART IV
The Developing Powers 167

15 Cuban revolutionary diplomacy 1959–2009 169
   Carlos Alzugaray

16 Peru: a model for Latin American diplomacy and statecraft 181
   Ronald Bruce St John

17 Nigeria: the foreign policy of a putative African Power 192
   Cyril I. Obi

18 Thailand: the enigma of bamboo diplomacy 204
   Pavin Chachavalpongpun
Contents

19 Indonesia's foreign policy after the Cold War: political legitimacy, international pressure, and foreign-policy choices 215
Kai He

PART V
International Organisations and Military Alliances 227

20 A global Great Power in the making?: the European Union in the emerging global order 229
Rikard Bengtsson

21 The Great Powers and the United Nations 240
Stephen Ryan

22 Reconciling different logics of security provision: the case of NATO 252
Alexandra Ghetiu

23 New regionalisms and the African Union: reflections on the rise of Africrats, regional economic integration, and inter-regional relations 264
J. Andrew Grant and Thomas Kwasi Tieku

24 The non-aligned movement: collective diplomacy of the global South 274
Jacqueline Anne Braveboy-Wagner

PART VI
The International Economy 291

25 The International Monetary Fund and the World Bank: the power of money? 293
Morten Bøås

26 The European Union and the economic and financial crisis: reforming internal governance and external representation in turbulent times 303
Daniela Schwarzer

27 The Organization of the Petroleum Exporting Countries and contemporary international politics and economy 314
Houchang Hassan-Yari

vii
Contents

28 From colonies to collective: ALBA, Latin American integration, and the construction of regional political power
   Larry Catá Backer

29 The G8 and the move to a globalised international economy
   Andreas Freytag and Leo Wangler

30 The opposition to the globalised international economy
   Bruno R. Wüest

PART VII

Issues of Conflict and Cooperation

31 International arms control
   David Mutimer

32 The strategy gap: contemporary civil–military relations and the use of military power
   Michael L. Roi

33 The Middle East: strategic and military balance of power
   Eyal Zisser

34 The balance of power in South Asia
   Sumit Ganguly

35 North Korea: the foreign policy of a ‘rogue’ state
   Balbina Y. Hwang

36 Failed states: Zimbabwe
   Jeremy R. Youde

37 Public versus private power: non-governmental organisations and international security
   Jonathan Goodhand and Oliver Walton

38 Soft power: overcoming the limits of a concept
   Kostas Ifantis

Bibliography 453

Index 475