Branding Post-Communist Nations
Marketizing National Identities in the "New" Europe

Edited by Nadia Kaneva
Contents

List of Figures ix
Preface xi

PART I
Promises and Problems of Post-Communist Nation Branding

1 Nation Branding in Post-Communist Europe: Identities, Markets, and Democracy 3
   NADIA KANEVA

2 Systemic Propaganda and State Branding in Post-Soviet Eastern Europe 23
   GERALD SUSSMAN

3 Brand Interrupted: The Impact of Alternative Narrators on Nation Branding in the Former Second World 49
   ROBERT A. SAUNDERS

PART II
Agents, Institutions, Practices

4 Redesigning a Nation: Welcome to E-stonia, 2001–2018 79
   SUE CURRY JANSEN

   NADIA KANEVA
Contents

6 Toward Corpo-Nationalism: Poland as a Brand
PAWEŁ SUROWIEC 124

PART III
Representations, Mediations, Narrations

7 Branding Slovenia: “You Can't Spell Slovenia Without Love . . .”
ZALA VOLČIČ 147

8 Vampire Branding: Romania's Dark Destinations
ALICE BARDAN AND ANIKÓ IMRE 168

9 One Nation, One Brand? Nation Branding and Identity
Reconstruction in Post-Communist Hungary
LÁSZLÓ KULCSÁR AND YOUNG-OK YUM 193

10 The Musical (Re)branding of Serbia: Srbija Sounds Global,
Guća, and EXIT
BRANISLAVA (BRANA) MIJATOVIĆ 213

Contributors 237
Index 241