The External Dimension of the European Union’s Area of Freedom, Security and Justice
Table of Contents

List of Abbreviations ........................................................................................................ 11

Preface ................................................................................................................................. 17

Alfredo Pérez Rubalcaba

PART ONE. THE INSTITUTIONAL AND LEGAL FRAMEWORK

CHAPTER 1. The Institutional Setting and the Legal Toolkit ........... 25

Sara Poli

CHAPTER 2. EU External Action in the JHA Domain.

A Legal Perspective ........................................................................................................... 77

Marise Cremona

PART TWO. POLICY INTERACTION AND INTERCONNECTION

CHAPTER 3. Channels of Externalisation of EU Justice and Home Affairs .............. 119

Sandra Lavenex

CHAPTER 4. The External Dimension of the AFSJ and Other EU External Policies. An Osmotic Relationship .......... 139

Panos Koutrakos

CHAPTER 5. The Principle of Pre-emption after Opinion 1/2003 and Coherence in EU Readmission Policy .......... 163

Bart Van Vooren

PART THREE. EXTERNAL ASPECTS OF MIGRATION POLICY

CHAPTER 6. Resilient Bilateralism in the Cooperation on Readmission ..................... 191

Jean-Pierre Cassarino

CHAPTER 7. The External Dimension of EU Policy on Trafficking in Human Beings .......... 209

Conny Rijken
PART FOUR. EXTERNAL ASPECTS OF JUDICIAL COOPERATION

CHAPTER 8. The European Union and the Implementation of International Norms in Criminal Matters .......................... 239
Valsamis Mitsilegas

CHAPTER 9. Recent Trends in Private International Law. The European Union and Third States .................................................. 273
Horatia Muir Watt

CHAPTER 10. The Exclusive External Competence of the Community under Article 81 TFEU. Lugano re-opened? ....... 287
Jan-Jaap Kuipers

PART FIVE. EXTERNAL ASPECTS OF COUNTER-TERRORISM

CHAPTER 11. Kadi and the EU as Instrument or Actor. Which Rule of Law for Counter-Terrorism? .......................... 323
Piet Eeckhout

CHAPTER 12. Soft, Smart and Strategic. The International Dimension of EU Action in the Fight Against Terrorism .......... 341
Monica den Boer

PART SIX. COOPERATION WITH MAJOR INTERNATIONAL PARTNERS

CHAPTER 13. The Mediterranean Dimension of the Area of Freedom, Security and Justice ............................ 367
Francesca Longo

CHAPTER 14. EU-US Cooperation on Counter-Terrorism and the Internationalisation of Law Enforcement .......................... 389
Wyn Rees

PART SEVEN. CONCLUSION

CHAPTER 15. The Outcomes of the External Dimension of the AFSJ. Forms, Effectiveness, Prospects and Specificity ....... 409
Jörg Monar

List of Authors ............................................................................................................. 433