Alker and IR
Global studies in an interconnected world

Edited by Renée Marlin-Bennett
Contents

About the authors xi
Acknowledgements xv

1 Introduction
RENÉE MARLIN-BENNETT AND THOMAS J. BIERSTEKER 1

Part 1 Foundations 11

2 Human nature and world politics: ecce Hayward Alker’s homo politicus as homo humanitatis 13
NETA C. CRAWFORD

3 On the nature of empirical evidence 28
RENÉE MARLIN-BENNETT

4 A fairy tale of science: playing with Hayward Alker 42
L.H.M. LING

5 Arguing gender and international relations: a dialectical-hermeneutical approach 55
LAURA SJÖBERG

Part 2 World (and Other) Orders 69

6 World orders in Central Asia 71
TAHIR AMIN

7 Dialectics of civilizations: a cosmic perspective 87
HEIKKI PATOMÄKI

8 “Modern order/disorder”: notes for a future archeologist 102
NICHOLAS ONUF
Contents

Part 3 Alkerian Empirics

9 Two dilemmas of democracy in the twenty-first century
   IJAZ SHAIFI GILANI

10 Alkerian reformulations of metaphor and IR
   ERIC M. BLANCHARD

11 Authentic methods for emancipatory peace research:
   Alker’s legacy in relatus and pragmatic analysis
   GAVAN DUFFY

12 “Hi-tech hermeneutics”: combining rigor and alternative epistemologies of social science
   DAVID SYLVAN

Afterword
   J. ANN TICKNER

Bibliography

Index