Handbook of Nuclear Proliferation

Edited by Harsh V. Pant
Contents

List of illustrations
List of contributors
Preface
Abbreviations

1. Introduction
   Harsh V. Pant

PART I
Thematic issues

2. Nuclear deterrence: enduring relevance but growing need for re-evaluation
   Chris Hobbs and Matthew Harries

3. The peaceful atom: its economic and security costs
   Henry Sokolski

4. Non-proliferation and counter-proliferation: necessary, complementary and often interchangeable concepts
   Mark Fitzpatrick

5. Nuclear weapons and non-state actors: the evolving threat of nuclear terrorism
   Paul Wilkinson

6. The nuclear taboo
   Nina Tannenwald

PART II
The five nuclear powers

7. The United States: setting the stage for disarmament
   James J. Wirtz

---

x
xi
xvi
xviii
1
13
15
27
41
52
62
75
77
Contents

8 Russia’s contradictory nuclear lessons: arms control, deterrence and proliferation in contemporary Russian thinking
\textit{Stephen Blank}
86

9 The United Kingdom: a conflicted nuclear weapons state
\textit{Paul Ingram and Michael Collins}
103

10 France: the evolution of a nuclear exception
\textit{Corentin Brustlein}
116

11 China: a deterrence paradox
\textit{Jonathan Holslag}
132

\section*{PART III}
\textbf{De facto nuclear states}
147

12 India: the (accepted) gatecrasher
\textit{Chris Ogden}
149

13 Pakistan: the politics of nuclear force building
\textit{Bhumitra Chakma}
161

14 Israel: origins and implications of nuclear ambiguity
\textit{Arielle Kandel}
173

\section*{PART IV}
\textbf{The ‘problem’ states}
185

15 Iran: from power generation to weapons proliferation?
\textit{Anoushiravan Ehteshami}
187

16 North Korea: an isolationist nuclear state
\textit{Balbina Y. Hwang}
197

\section*{PART V}
\textbf{The ‘threshold’ states}
213

17 South Africa: disarmament trendsetter
\textit{Stephen F. Burgess}
215

18 Japan: between pacifism and pragmatism
\textit{Takenori Horimoto}
226
19 Egypt: flirtations, frustration and future uncertainty
   Maria Rost Rublee

PART VI
The global non-proliferation regime

20 The non-proliferation treaty: foundation of disarmament policy
   Mark P. Hilborne

21 The Comprehensive Test Ban Treaty: foundations, context and outlook
   Dean Knox

22 A cut-off of production of weapon-usable fissionable material:
   considerations, requirements and IAEA capabilities
   Tariq Rauf

23 Trends in missile defence and space security: challenging
   non-proliferation priorities
   Bharath Gopalaswamy

24 The US–India nuclear deal: Great Power politics versus non-proliferation
   Harsh V. Pant

25 Nuclear proliferation and nuclear disarmament: a complicated relationship
   Tom Sauer

26 The nuclear future: a cautious prognosis
   Malcolm R. Davis

Select bibliography

Index