Varieties of Federal Governance
Major Contemporary Models

Edited by
Rekha Saxena
Contents

List of Contributors vii
Foreword ix
Acknowledgements xi
Introduction xiii
Rekha Saxena

I. Theoretical and Comparative Dimensions

1. Federalism: An Alternative Category in Political Thought? 3
   Thomas O. Hueglin

2. Governance of Capital Cities in Federal Countries: 18
   Comparative Perspectives
   Enid Slack and Rupak Chattopadhyay

II. Presidential Federal Systems

3. Political Coercion and Administrative Cooperation in U.S. 37
   Intergovernmental Relations
   John Kincaid

4. What Makes the Swiss Multicultural Federalism Work 54
   Lidija R. Basta Fleiner and Thomas Fleiner

5. Local Governments in the Brazilian Federation 69
   Fernando Rezende

6. Russian Federalism: Does it Work? 86
   Galina Gribanova

7. Federalism in Pakistan 104
   Veena Kukreja

III. Commonwealth Parliamentary Federations

8. Constitutional Normalization in Canada: The Significance 131 of Failure of the Charlottetown Agreement
   Ronald L. Watts

9. The Australian Senate: Form, Function and Effectiveness 142
   Simon Evans

10. Federalizing India’s Political Parties: National All-India 175 and National Interstate Parties
    Douglas V. Verney
11. Malaysia: Centralized Federalism in an Electoral One-Party State
  Wong Chin Huat and James Chin

12. Promises Unmet: Multi-level Government in South Africa
  Christina Murray and Richard Simeon

IV. Non-Commonwealth Parliamentary Federations in Afro-Asia

  Petra Zimmermann-Steinhart

14. Federalism and Political Inclusion: Choices facing Nepal
  Yash Ghai and Jill Cottrell

V. European Parliamentary Federations

15. The German Federal System and its Reforms: Structures, Taboos and the ‘Shylock Principle’
  Uwe Leonardy

16. The Belgian Federation: Tools of Appeasement, Instruments of Confrontation
  Johanne Poirier

  Thomas Jeffrey Miley

VI. Devolutionary Systems

18. The Union’s Place: Scottish-English Relations after Devolution
  Charlie Jeffery

19. The Federal Debate in Sri Lanka
  Rohan Edrisinha

VII. Supranational Confederalism/Federalism?

20. The European Union and the Competence Catalogue after the Lisbon Treaty: Insights from Comparative Federalism
  Wilfried Swenden