Contents

List of figures and tables ix
Contributors x
Series Editor's Foreword xvi

WILLIAM SAFRAN

1 Democracy and federalism in plurinational societies 1
MIQUEL CAMINAL AND FERRAN REQUEJO

PART I
Theory 15

2 Territorial pluralism: its forms, flaws, and virtues 17
JOHN MCGARRY AND BRENDAN O'LEARY

3 The unfreedom of the moderns: in the post-9/11 age of constitutionalism and imperialism 51
MICHAEL SIMPSON AND JAMES TULLY

4 The moral foundations of asymmetrical federalism: normative considerations 85
ALAIN-G. GAGNON AND GUY LAFOREST

5 The lack of national pluralism in federal theory and federations: plurinational federalism in a comparative and value pluralist approach 108
FERRAN REQUEJO
Contents

PART II 135

Cases

6 Belgian federalism: means to an end? 137
   Wilfried Swenden

7 Canada: a territorial or a multinational federation? 171
   Philip Resnick

8 The United Kingdom as a plurinational state 185
   Stephen Tierney

9 India: unity in diversity through an evolving federalism 208
   George Mathew

10 The search for federalism in the Russian Federation 243
    Anastassia V. Obydenkova

11 The Bolivian invention: plurinationality and indigenous people within an unusual composite state structure 266
    Franz Barrios

12 Multi-lingual but mono-national: exploring and explaining Switzerland's exceptionalism 295
    Paolo Dardanelli

13 The Spanish "state of autonomous communities": nationalist resistance and federal horizons 324
    Miquel Caminal

Index 365