Czechoslovakia and the Czech Republic in World Politics

Ladislav Cabada and Šárka Waisová
Contents

Acknowledgments vii
Introduction ix

Chapter 1  Czech Statehood and the Birth of Czechoslovakia
           Ladislav Cabada  1

Chapter 2  The Czechoslovak Republic in the International Politics of the Interwar Period
           Ladislav Cabada  17

Chapter 3  From Munich to the Renewal of Czechoslovakia
           Ladislav Cabada  33

Chapter 4  Czechoslovakia in a Divided Europe:
           The Formation of Czechoslovak Foreign Policy after World War II and Relations with Its Neighbors and the Superpowers during the Cold War
           Šárka Waisová  51

Chapter 5  Regional Cooperation in Central Europe and Beyond:
           The Czech Republic as a Member of Regional Organizations
           Šárka Waisová  67

Chapter 6  The Czech Republic and Foreign Development
           Cooperation: From Donor to Recipient and Back
           Šárka Waisová  87
Contents

Chapter 7
The War on Terror and Dilemmas in Czech Foreign Policy: Atlanticism? Anti-Americanism? Europeanization?
Šárka Waisová
107

Chapter 8
Dissident Tradition in Czech Foreign Policy: Twenty Years after Still Matters
Šárka Waisová
129

Chapter 9
The Czech Republic and the Humanitarian Challenges of International Politics: An Analysis of the Nature of Czech Foreign Policy
Šárka Waisová
163

Conclusion
193

Bibliography
199

Index
215

About the Authors
221