Routledge Handbook of Cosmopolitanism Studies

Edited by Gerard Delanty
Contents

List of illustrations ix
List of contributors x

Introduction: the emerging field of cosmopolitanism studies
   Gerard Delanty 1

Part I
Cosmopolitan theory and approaches 9

1 Alternative histories of cosmopolitanism: reconfiguring classical legacies
   David Inglis 11

2 Modernity and cosmopolitanism: from a critical social theory perspective
   Piet Strydom 25

3 The idea of critical cosmopolitanism
   Gerard Delanty 38

4 Cosmopolitanism and the question of universalism
   Daniel Chemilo 47

5 The global civilizing role of cosmopolitanism
   Andrew Linklater 60

6 World history and cosmopolitanism
   Bo Stråth 72

7 De-colonial cosmopolitanism and dialogues among civilizations
   Walter D. Mignolo 85

8 Emancipatory cosmopolitanism: a vision of the individual free from culture, custom and community
   Nigel Rapport 101
Contents

9 Cosmopolitanism and empirical social research: some methodological issues of an emerging research agenda 115
Victor Roudometof

10 Performing cosmopolitanism 127
Ian Woodward and Zlatko Skrbis

11 What is a world?: On world literature as world-making activity 138
Pheng Cheah

Part II
Cosmopolitan cultures 151

12 Anthropology and the new ethical cosmopolitanism 153
Pnina Werbner

13 The persistence of cultural diversity despite cosmopolitanism 166
Pippa Norris and Ronald Inglehart

14 Media cultures and cosmopolitan connections 178
Alexa Robertson

15 The cosmopolitanism of the sacred 188
Bryan S. Turner

16 Cosmopolitanism, religion and inter-civilizational dialogue 198
Humeira Iqtidar

17 Cosmopolitanism in cities and beyond 208
Brenda S. A. Yeoh and Weiqiang Lin

18 Aesthetic cosmopolitanism 220
Nikos Papastergiadis

19 Festivals, museums, exhibitions: aesthetic cosmopolitanism in the cultural public sphere 233
Monica Sassatelli

20 Bordering and connectivity: cosmopolitan opportunities 245
Chris Rumford

21 Cosmopolitan memory 254
Max Pensky
22 Cosmopolitan education
   Noah W. Sobe

23 Interspecies cosmopolitanism
   Eduardo Mendieta

Part III
Cosmopolitics

24 Citizenship of the world revisited
   Etienne Balibar

25 Global inequality and human rights: a cosmopolitan perspective
   Ulrich Beck

26 Cosmocitizens?
   Richard Vernon

27 A right to politics? Towards an agonistic cosmopolitics of human rights
   Patrick Hanafin

28 Equality, sufficiency, and global justice
   Gillian Brock

29 Cosmopolitanism and global democratization
   Raffaele Marchetti

30 Global justice and contemporary political philosophy: statist anti-cosmopolitanism
   Daniel M. Weinstock

31 The idea of cosmopolitan solidarity
   Robert Fine

32 Global civil society and the cosmopolitan ideal
   Alexander Hensby and Darren J. O’Byrne

33 Humanitarianism and cosmopolitanism
   Iain Wilkinson

34 Cosmopolitanism and migrancy
   Meyda Yaşenoğlu
Part IV
World varieties of cosmopolitanism 425

35 An empirical world of cosmopolitan Asia 427
Baogang He and Kevin M. Brown

36 Between tianxia and postsocialism: contemporary Chinese cosmopolitanism 443
Lisa Rofel

37 Kyōsei: Japan’s cosmopolitanism 452
Yoshio Sugimoto

38 Unity in diversity: the Indian cosmopolitan idea 463
Sudarsan Padmanabhan

39 Africa’s new public cosmopolitans 477
Richard Werbner

40 Cosmopolitanism in Latin America: political practices, critiques, and imaginaries 491
Aurea Mota

41 Ethnographies of cosmopolitanism in the Caribbean 504
Huon Wardle

42 Immigration, indigeneity and identity: cosmopolitanism in Australia and New Zealand 516
Keith Jacobs and Jeff Malpas

43 Americans and others: historical identity formation in the United States 527
Andrew Hartman

44 Cosmopolitanism, Europe and social change: a socio-historical perspective on cosmopolitan order in Europe and the EU 538
Maurice Roche

45 Dangerous liaisons: Jews and cosmopolitanism in modern times 550
Michael L. Miller and Scott Ury

Index 563