Federalism and Ethnic Conflict in Ethiopia
A comparative regional study

Asnake Kefale
Contents

List of illustrations x
Preface xi
Acronyms xii

1 Introduction 1
Objectives of the study 4
Federalism and conflict management: theoretical and conceptual approaches 6
Analytical framework of the study 15
Research design and methods of data collection and analysis 19
Structure of the book 21

2 Ethiopia’s ethnic federalism: history and ideology 23
Introduction 23
From multi-ethnic empire to ethnic federation 23
The ideology of Ethiopian federalism 26
EPRDF’s revolutionary democracy ideology and federalism 31
Conclusion 36

3 Asymmetries and trends of conflicts in federal Ethiopia 38
Introduction 38
The enduring debate on ethnic federalism 38
Asymmetries in Ethiopia’s ethnic federation 40
Politics of resource sharing and its conflict potential 43
Federalism and secessionist wars 48
Autonomy and generation/transformation of ethnic conflicts 51
Conclusion 56
4 Ethnic make-up and history: background to the study regions
   Introduction 58
   Peripherality of the two regions 58
   Ethnic make-up and relations 62
   History of incorporation and administration 67
   Conclusion 74

5 Federalism and autonomy conflicts in the Somali region
   Introduction 75
   Autonomy and intra-regional divisions 75
   Autonomy conflicts: clans and the new federal resources 83
   Conclusion 90

6 Federalism and autonomy conflicts in the Benishangul-Gumuz region
   Introduction 92
   Autonomy and intra-regional instability: rise and decline of the BPLM 92
   Bertha-Gumuz dispute: Bertha dominance or exit? 95
   Autonomy and conflict between the titular and non-titular groups 99
   Conclusion 106

7 Inter-regional conflicts: Somali region
   Introduction 108
   Background to Somali relations with the Oromo and the Afar 108
   Somali-Oromia boundary conflicts: the case of Moyale 110
   Somali-Afar boundary conflict: the case of the Afar-Issa conflict 118
   Conclusion 127

8 Inter-regional conflicts: Benishangul-Gumuz region
   Introduction 129
   Background to Gumuz relations with Amhara and Oromo 129
   Inter-regional relations: Benishangul-Gumuz and Amhara 131
   Inter-regional relations: Benishangul-Gumuz and Oromia 136
   Conclusion 143