ANDREA BIENER / CHRISTIAN Bingel
HANS-MARTIN Gutmann (Eds.)

AFTER VIOLENCE

RELIGION, TRAUMA AND RECONCILIATION

EVANGELISCHE VERLAGSANSTALT
Leipzig
CONTENTS

Acknowledgments ................................................................. 5

Introduction ........................................................................ 9
Andrea Bieler, Christian Bingel, Hans-Martin Gutmann

I AFTER VIOLENCE: FRAMING THE PERSPECTIVE

After Violence, (No) More Violence? A South African Perspective .... 19
Tinyiko Sam Maluleke

II MEMORY AND TRAUMA

Remembering Violence: Practical Theological Reflections ............. 40
Andrea Bieler

Missing Bodies, Conflicted Rituals: Performing Memory in Germany,
Argentina, and Cambodia .......................................................... 61
Brigitte Sion

Religion, Politics, and Genocide in Rwanda ................................. 82
Jean-Pierre Karegeye

Surviving the War in Liberia ..................................................... 103
Sabine Förster

After Violence and the Anzac Tradition ...................................... 120
Phillip Tolliday

After Violence: Narratives of Grace in the Midst of Trauma ........... 138
Hans-Martin Gutmann
CONTENTS

Spiritual Violence »In the Name of Jesus«
The Case of Neo-Pentecostal Ministries from West Africa to Germany:
A New Testament Perspective ............................................. 149
Werner Kahl

III INTERRUPTING VIOLENCE:
THE FRAGILE PATH TOWARDS RECONCILIATION

Forgetting Without Forgiving: The State of the Peace in Ireland,
North and South ............................................................... 167
Siobhán Garrigan

Interrupting Violence in a Postcolonial Society:
A Case Study from Papua New Guinea ................................. 180
Theodor Ahrens

Towards an Ecumenical Theology of Just Peace at the Conclusion of the »Decade to Overcome Violence« ................................. 198
Fernando Enns

Divine Reconciliation and Human Restitution in a Broken World:
Revisiting Anselm's Satisfaction Theory ............................... 219
Ulrike Link-Wieczorek

After Violence: Impressions of Student Observers
Anne Wehrmann and Laura Koch ......................................... 239

Contributors and Editors .................................................. 242