A CONVENIENT HATRED: THE HISTORY OF ANTISEMITISM

Phyllis Goldstein

Foreword by Sir Harold Evans
CONTENTS

FOREWORD by Sir Harold Evans .................................................. iii
TO VICTIMS OF PREJUDICE by Leonard Stern .............................. xi
INTRODUCTION ........................................................................... 1

CHAPTER 1  Beginnings (586 BCE–135 CE) ................................. 7
  People on the Move—Antisemitism in Elephantine?—
  Antisemitism in Alexandria?—Wars with Rome—
  Antisemitism in the Roman Empire?

CHAPTER 2  Separation: Synagogue and Church, Jew and Christian (29–414 CE) ............................................................. 23
  Jesus and His Followers—A Growing Separation—
  The Fourth Century: A Turning Point—Jewish Christians and Judaizing Christians

CHAPTER 3  Conquests and Consequences (395–750 CE) ......... 39
  Warring Empires—Oases in the Desert—The Prophet Muhammad—Jewish Tribes in Medina—Building an Islamic Empire

CHAPTER 4  Holy Wars and Antisemitism (700s–1300) ............. 55
  "Us" and "Them" in Northern Europe—A Call to Arms—
  A New Kind of War—Crimes and Punishment—
  The Consequences of 1096

CHAPTER 5  The Power of a Lie (1144–1300) ............................. 75
  Charges of Ritual Murder—Tragedy in Blois—The Death of "Little Hugh"—Blood and the Blood Libel—Jews and Judaism Redefined—Attacks on the Talmud

CHAPTER 6  Refugees from Intolerance (1347–1492) ................. 93
  The Black Death—"The Money Was Indeed the Thing . . ."—Spain: An Exception?—Riots and Conversions—Expulsion from Spain—Jews without a Home