Contents

Preface xi

Introduction 1

PART ONE

THE DISCIPLINES OF INTERNATIONAL STUDIES

1 The Past in the Present: Historical Interpretation in International Conflict 13

SHELDON ANDERSON
  What Is History? 15
  Historians and Their Tools, 18
  Politics, Power, and History, 20
  History and International Conflicts, 22
  What Is Good History? 28
  Theories of History, 28
  Are There Lessons of History? 31
  References, 32
  Further Reading, 33
  Journals, 33
  Films, 33
  Web Sites, 34

2 Peoples, Places, and Patterns: Geography in International Studies 35

STANLEY W. TOOPS
  What Is Geography? 35
  Development of Geography, 36
Contents

Components of Geography, 38
Maps: Tools for International Studies, 48
Conclusion, 53
References, 54
Further Reading, 55
Journals, 56
Films, 56
Web Sites, 56

Anthropology and Intercultural Relations  57

MARK ALLEN PETERSON
Cultural Misunderstandings in an International Milieu, 58
What Is Culture? 61
Levels of Culture, 67
Intercultural Relations, 71
Studying Culture: The Anthropological Perspective, 74
Anthropology and International Studies, 79
Notes, 81
References, 82
Further Reading, 82
Journals, 83
Films, 83
Web Sites, 83

Economics and International Development  85

MARK ALLEN PETERSON AND CHARLES STEVENS
Liberal Economics, 86
Economic Nationalism, 89
Marxism, 92
Microeconomics and Macroeconomics, 95
Development Economics, 96
Globalization, 98
Non-Western Economics, 102
Sustainability, 104
The Global Economic Crisis, 105
References, 110
Further Reading, 111
Journals, 112
Films, 112
Web Sites, 112
5 Power, Conflict, and Policy:
The Role of Political Science in International Studies 113
JEANNE A. K. HEY
Major Fields, 114
References, 127
Further Reading, 127
Films, 128
Web Sites, 128

PART TWO INTERDISCIPLINARY APPROACHES TO REGIONAL AND INTERNATIONAL TOPICS

6 Europe and the Modern World 131
SHELDON ANDERSON
What Is Europe? 133
Europe and the World's Progress Toward Liberal Democracy, 136
Europe in the Twentieth Century: From War to Economic Unity, 145
The Scourge of Nationalism and National Conflict in Modern Europe, 148
National Self-Determination and the Right to Statehood, 154
Europe and the Terrorist Threat: Basque, Irish Republican, and Islamic Extremists, 158
Europe's Importance in the World Today, 162
Timeline of Twentieth-Century European History, 165
References, 172
Further Reading, 173
Journals, 173
Films, 174
Web Sites, 174

7 East Asia and International Studies:
Demography and Development 175
STANLEY W. TOOPS
Introduction: Why Study East Asia? 175
What Is East Asia? 177
Social Issues: Demography, 185
The Role of East Asia in the World, 195
Timeline of Twentieth-Century East Asian History, 198
References, 205
Further Reading, 206
Journals, 206
Films, 206
Web Sites, 207

8 South/Central Asia and International Studies:
Environment and Population 209
STANLEY W. TOOPS
Introduction: Why Study South and Central Asia? 209
How Is South Asia Connected to the West? 211
Demographic Issues, 220
Environmental Diversity and Challenges of India, 222
Political Ecology in South and Central Asia, 225
The Future of India, 226
Asia Matters: Global Connections, 227
Timeline of Twentieth-Century South/Central Asian History, 229
References, 236
Further Reading, 237
Films, 238
Journals, 238
Web Sites, 238

9 Africa and the International Community 239
SHELDON ANDERSON
African Geography and Culture, 241
Africa as Part of World History, 246
Challenges to African Political and Economic Development, 252
African State Building and Global Economic Integration, 260
Africa and Globalization: Relations with the United States, Europe, and Asia, 267
African Prospects, 273
Timeline of Twentieth-Century African History, 278
References, 284
Further Reading, 288
Journals, 289
Films, 289
Web Sites, 289
10 The Middle East

MARK ALLEN PETERSON

The Middle of Where? 293
Land and Livelihood, 295
From Past to Present, 297
Diversity and Division, 302
From Empires to Nation-States, 307
The Richest and the Poorest, 310
The Problem of Palestine, 314
Political Change in the Middle East, 319
Conclusion, 325
Timeline of Twentieth-Century Middle Eastern History, 325
Notes, 332
References, 332
Further Reading, 334
Journals, 335
Films, 336
Web Sites, 336

11 Latin America

JEANNE A. K. HEY

What Is Latin America? 340
Which Territories Comprise Latin America? 341
Historical Sketch, 343
Dominant Themes in Latin American Studies, 349
Timeline of Twentieth-Century Latin American History, 359
References, 365
Further Reading, 365
Journals, 365
Films, 365
Web Sites, 366

PART THREE

CONTEMPORARY GLOBAL ISSUES

12 International Terrorism

MARK ALLEN PETERSON

Notes, 375
References, 375
13 Turkey and the European Union: The Crossroad from Europe to Asia 379
SHELDON ANDERSON
References, 383

14 Tourism Along the Silk Road 385
STANLEY W. TOOPS
Tourism System, 385
Tourism Approaches, 387
The Silk Road, 388
References, 394
Further Reading, 396

15 Persistent Political Violence 397
JEANNE A. K. HEY
References, 402

16 The Veil Controversy 403
MARK ALLEN PETERSON
References, 408

17 The Disintegration of Sudan 409
SHELDON ANDERSON
References, 413

18 Global Population Projections 415
STANLEY W. TOOPS
How Many People Will There Be? 416
References, 419

Conclusion 421
MARK ALLEN PETERSON
Adopting the Interdisciplinary Approach, 423
Solution-Oriented Analysis, 426
Sources of Innovative Solutions, 427
Conclusion, 432
References, 432
Further Reading, 433
Web Sites, 433

Appendix: Comparative Global Statistics: North America, Australia, New Zealand, and the Pacific Countries 435

Glossary 445
Index 465