Masters of the Universe

HAYEK, FRIEDMAN, AND THE BIRTH OF NEOLIBERAL POLITICS

Daniel Stedman Jones

PRINCETON UNIVERSITY PRESS
Princeton & Oxford
Contents

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS IX
TIMELINE XI
LIST OF ABBREVIATIONS XIII

Introduction 1
The Three Phases of Neoliberalism 6
Neoliberalism and History 10
Transatlantic Neoliberal Politics 15

1. The Postwar Settlement 21

2. The 1940s: The Emergence of the Neoliberal Critique 30
Karl Popper and “The Open Society” 37
Ludwig von Mises and “Bureaucracy” 49
Friedrich Hayek and “The Road to Serfdom” 57
The Mont Pelerin Society and “The Intellectuals and Socialism” 73

3. The Rising Tide: Neoliberal Ideas in the Postwar Period 85
The Two Chicago Schools: Henry Simons, Milton Friedman, and Neoliberalism 89
The Enlightenment, Adam Smith and Neoliberalism 100
Economic and Political Freedom: Milton Friedman and Cold War Neoliberalism 111
The German Economic Miracle: Neoliberalism and the Soziale Marktwirtschaft 121
Regulatory Capture, Public Choice, and Rational Choice Theory 126

4. A Transatlantic Network: Think Tanks and the Ideological Entrepreneurs 134
The United States in the 1950s: Fusionism and the Cold War 138
British Conservatism in the 1950s 147
Neoliberal Organization in the 1950s and 1960s 152
The Second Wave: Free Market Think Tanks in the 1970s 161
Neoliberal Journalists and Politicians 173
Breakthrough? 178
Contents

5. Keynesianism and the Emergence of Monetarism, 1945–71
- Keynes and Keynesianism 182
- "A Little Local Difficulty": Enoch Powell's Monetarism 190
- American Economic Policy in the 1960s 197
- Milton Friedman's Monetarism 201
- The Gathering Storm 212

- The Slow Collapse of the Postwar Boom, 1964–71 217
- Stagflation and Wage and Price Policies 225
- The Heath Interregnum and the Neoliberal Alternative 230
- The Left Turns to Monetarism, 1: Callaghan, Healey, and the IMF Crisis 241
- The Left Turns to Monetarism, 2: Jimmy Carter and Paul Volcker's Federal Reserve 247
- Thatcherite Economic Strategy 254
- Reaganomics 263
- Conclusion 269

- Postwar Low-Income Housing and Urban Policy in the United States 278
- Postwar Low-Income Housing and Urban Policy in Britain 288
- Jimmy Carter and the Limits of Government 295
- Property-Owning Democracy and Individual Freedom: Housing and Neoliberal Ideas 297
- The Reagan Administration 304
- Council House Privatization: The Right to Buy Scheme 308
- Transatlantic Transmissions: Reagan's Enterprise Zones 315
- Hope VI, Urban Regeneration, and the Third Way 321
- Conclusion 325

Conclusion
- The Legacy of Transatlantic Neoliberalism: Faith-Based Policy 329
  - Parallelisms: The Place of Transatlantic Neoliberal Politics in History 333
  - The Apotheosis of Neoliberalism? 338
  - Reason-Based Policymaking 343

Notes 347
Index 391