Feminist Strategies in International Governance

Edited by Gülay Caglar, Elisabeth Prügl and Susanne Zwingel
Introducing feminist strategies in international governance
GÜLAY CAGLAR, ELISABETH PRÜGL AND SUSANNE ZWINGEL

PART I
Feminist strategies

1 International human rights law: a portmanteau for feminist norms?
HILARY CHARLESWORTH

2 Gender mainstreaming strategies in international governance
JACQUI TRUE AND LAURA PARISI

3 Gender expertise as feminist strategy
ELISABETH PRÜGL

4 Feminist strategies in international organizations: the United Nations context
CAROLYN HANNAN

5 A perspective on feminist international organizing from the bottom up: the case of IGTN and the WTO
MARIAMA WILLIAMS
PART II
Human rights of women

6 Translating international women’s rights norms: CEDAW in context
   SUSANNE ZWINGEL 111

7 Doing vernacularization: the encounter between global and local ideas about women’s rights in Peru
   PEGGY LEVITT, SALLY ENGLE MERRY, ROSA ALAYZA AND MERCEDES CRISóstOMO MEZA 127

8 Translating international norms: filters to combating violence against women in Lebanon
   RITA SABAT 143

PART III
Security governance

9 A feminist analysis of UN Security Council resolutions on women, peace, and security
   CLAUDIA VON BRAUNMÜHL 163

10 European countries and the implementation of UN Security Council Resolution 1325
   ANDREA SCHNEIKER AND JUTTA JOACHIM 181

11 How do women’s rights norms travel? Peace-building operations as opportunity structures in Bosnia
   ANNE JENICHEN 198

PART IV
Economic governance

12 Governing the economy for gender equality? Challenges of regulation
   SHAHRA RAZAVI 217
13 Economic governance and the regulation of intimacy in gender and development: lessons from the World Bank’s programming  233
KATE BEDFORD

14 Feminist strategies and social learning in international economic governance  249
GÜLAY CAGLAR

15 Structural power and the gender biases of technocratic network governance in finance  267
BRIGITTE YOUNG

Conclusion: advancing feminist strategies in international governance  283
GÜLAY CAGLAR, ELISABETH PRÜGL AND SUSANNE ZWINGEL

Select bibliography  295
Index  299