The Normative Position of International Non-Governmental Organizations under International Law

An Analytical Framework

By

Rephael Harel Ben-Ari

LEIDEN • BOSTON
2012
TABLE OF CONTENTS

Acknowledgements .................................................................................................................. XI

Introduction

I. Overview: Contemporary Interdisciplinary Research ......................................................... 3

II. Analytical Frameworks ....................................................................................................... 7

   1. The Traditional Doctrinal Approach .............................................................................. 7

      1.1 The Doctrine of International Legal Personality ....................................................... 7

      1.2 Contextual Background and Main Implications ......................................................... 9

   2. Conceptual Frameworks Outside Personality ................................................................. 11

      2.1 The Functional-Constitutional Approach ................................................................ 11

      2.2 Contextual Background and Main Implications ......................................................... 13

III. Analytical Paradigms in the Context of Discourses on Legitimacy and Fairness .......... 18

IV. Main Lines of Inquiry and Outline .................................................................................... 19

Part I: INGOs: Arguing a Normative Status for Non-State Actors

I. Subjects of International Law: Historic Context and Modern Controversies ................. 27

II. The Doctrine of International Legal Personality: Governing Principles ....................... 41

III. INGOs: Role and Relevance ............................................................................................ 47

   1. Defining INGOs ............................................................................................................. 47

   2. Defining ‘Globalization’ ............................................................................................... 51

   3. Role and Relevance of INGOs .................................................................................... 53

IV. Analysis of Present Legal Status ....................................................................................... 71

   1. Article 71 UN Charter ................................................................................................. 71

   2. The European Convention on the Recognition of the Legal Personality of International NGOs ........................................................................................................... 76

   3. Evaluation .................................................................................................................... 80

V. INGOs’ International Normative Status: Intermediate Observations ......................... 87
Part II: Ameliorating a Formal Normative Status for INGOs: Contextual Historical Analysis of Past Attempts and Legal Instruments

I. Historical Synopsis of Attempts to Draft an International Convention on the Normative Position of INGOs under International Law and Consequent Legal Arrangements

1. Pre Second World War Developments
   - The 1912 von Bar Proposal (Institute of International Law)
   - The 1923 Politis Proposal (Institute of International Law)

2. Post Second World War Developments
   - Proposal of the Conference of Consultative Status Non-Governmental Organizations (CCNGOs) (by Niboyet and Kopelmanas), 1948
   - Proposal of the CCNGOs (by Habicht and Kopelmanas), 1949
   - The 1950 Bastid Proposal (Institute of International Law)
   - The 1959 Speeckaert Proposal (Union of International Associations)
   - The 1983 Merle Report, Parliamentary Assembly of the Council of Europe (COE)
   - The 1986 European Convention on Recognition of the Legal Personality of International Non-Governmental Organizations (COE)
   - The 1986 European Parliament Resolution on Non-Profit Making Associations in the European Communities (EEC)

II. Analysis and Evaluation

Part III: The Emerging Global Scene: A Postmodern Perspective

I. The Postmodern Human Condition: Paradoxes and Communitarian Appeals

II. Globalization and De-Territorialization

III. Globalization and Theories on State and Society

IV. Global Civil Society

V. American Perspective vs. Pan-European Perspective
PART IV: 'INGOs Within the Global Legal Order – Evolution, Revolution, or Vague Perception?': Conclusions and Recommendations

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Section</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>I. Political Knowledge and Sovereignty Debates</td>
<td>284</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>II. Historical Context of Contemporary Trends</td>
<td>303</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>III. International Legal Personality and Status</td>
<td>306</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>IV. Aggregate Individual Rights</td>
<td>310</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>V. International Legal Models of Idealism</td>
<td>314</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>VI. Globalization Debate</td>
<td>323</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>VII. Notion of Global Civil Society</td>
<td>325</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>VIII. Accountability and Legitimacy</td>
<td>332</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>IX. Normative Perception</td>
<td>338</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>X. Hard Questions and Future Inquiry</td>
<td>347</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Bibliography</td>
<td>353</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Index</td>
<td>373</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>