THE RETURN OF GEOPOLITICS IN EUROPE?

Social Mechanisms and Foreign Policy Identity Crises

Edited by

STEFANO GUZZINI

CAMBRIDGE UNIVERSITY PRESS
CONTENTS

List of figures and tables  page ix
Notes on contributors   x
Acknowledgements   xi

Introduction. The argument: geopolitics for fixing the coordinates of foreign policy identity 1
STEMANO GUZZINI

PART I The analytical framework 7

1 Which puzzle? An expected return of geopolitical thought in Europe? 9
STEMANO GUZZINI

2 Which geopolitics? 18
STEMANO GUZZINI

3 The framework of analysis: geopolitics meets foreign policy identity crises 45
STEMANO GUZZINI

PART II Case studies 75

4 Czech geopolitics: struggling for survival 77
PETR DRULÁK

5 The theme that dare not speak its name: Geopolitik, geopolitics and German foreign policy since unification 101
ANDREAS BEHNKE

6 Geopolitics 'in the land of the prince': a passe-partout to (global) power politics? 127
ELISABETTA BRIGHI AND FABIO PETITO
PART II

7 Turkey's 'geopolitics dogma'
Pınar Bilgin

8 Banal Huntingtonianism: civilisational geopolitics in Estonia
Merje Kuus

9 Russia: geopolitics from the heartland
Alexander Astrov and Natalia Morozova

PART III  Empirical and theoretical conclusions

10 The mixed revival of geopolitics in Europe
Stefano Guzzini

11 Social mechanisms as micro-dynamics in constructivist analysis
Stefano Guzzini

Bibliography
Index