Hendrik Hegemann
Regina Heller
Martin Kahl (eds.)

Studying ‘Effectiveness’ in International Relations
A guide for students and scholars

Barbara Budrich Publishers
Opladen • Berlin • Toronto 2013
Table of Contents

Preface .................................................................................................................................................. 7

Notes on Contributors .......................................................................................................................... 9

Hendrik Hegemann/Regina Heller/Martin Kahl
Introduction: Studying Effectiveness in International Relations ............................................ 15

Section I: Effectiveness as an Analytical Concept

Martin Kahl
Causes, Effects and Effectiveness – Conceptual, Epistemological and Methodological Considerations .................................................................................................................. 35

Section II: Actors

Hendrik Hegemann
How Effective are International Governmental Organizations? And How Do We Know? ........................................................................................................................................ 63

Charlotte Dany
Between Big Deals and Small Steps: Measuring the Effectiveness of International Non-Governmental Organizations ........................................................................................................ 81

Cornelia Ulbert
How to Hit a Moving Target: Assessing the Effectiveness of Public-Private Partnerships ................................................................................................................................. 101

Section III: Instruments and Processes

Frederic Pearson/Marie Olson Lounsbery/Andrea Kathryn Talentino
How Effective is International Military Intervention? The Evolution of Motives, Forms and Outcomes .......................................................................................................................... 123
Michael Brzoska
Research on the Effectiveness of International Sanctions .......................... 143

Helmut Breitmeier
Study of Regime Effectiveness: Concepts, Methods and Results .................... 161

Anne Wetzel
International Socialization: From Studying Effectiveness to More Effective Studies? .................................................................................. 177

Section IV: Policies and Policy Fields

Regina Heller
Assessing the Effectiveness of International Human Rights and External Democracy Promotion ................................................................. 197

Ursula C. Schroeder
Gauging the Effectiveness of Post-Conflict Peace- and State-Building ...... 217

Elena Kulipanova
How Effective is Development Aid? On Concepts and Methods of Measuring Aid Effectiveness .......................................................... 237

Eric van Um/Daniela Pisoiu
Assessing Effectiveness in Counterterrorism Policy ................................. 255

Index ......................................................................................................................... 281