DREAMING IN PUBLIC

Building the Occupy Movement

Edited by Amy Schrager Lang & Daniel Lang/Levitsky
Contents

Preface ........................................................................................................... 8
Staughton Lynd

Foreword ....................................................................................................... 10
Eileen Myles  Anonymous ........................................................................ 14

Introduction .................................................................................................. 15
Amy Schrager Lang & Daniel Lang/Levitsky  The Politics of the Impossible

Information Desk .......................................................................................... 26
Richard Kim  The Audacity of Occupy Wall Street ................................... 27
Ira Livingston  Darth Vader and Occupy Wall Street: A Twitter Essay ...... 31
Naomi Klein  The Most Important Thing in the World ............................ 43

Media .............................................................................................................. 47
Declaration of the Occupation of New York City ....................................... 49
Occupy Student Debt Campaign Pledges & Principles ........................... 52
The Mortville Declaration of Independence .............................................. 54
Council of Elders  Occupy Wall Street Statement of Solidarity .............. 56
UAW Local 2865  Resolution in Support of Occupy Oakland General Strike ................................................................. 58
American Library Association  Occupy Wall Street Library Resolution & Press Statement ......................................................... 61
jóvenes en resistencia alternativa  Solidarity Statement: We walk by asking, we reclaim by Occupying ........................................... 63
Organization of Women’s Freedom in Iraq  Message of Solidarity to Occupy Wall Street ................................................................. 67
Comrades from Cairo  Response to OWS Egypt Delegation Proposal ...... 70

Library ........................................................................................................... 72
Barbara Kingsolver  Another American Way ............................................ 73
Angus Johnston  What I Saw at #OccupyWallStreet Last Night, and What I Saw When I Left ......................................................... 75
Adrienne Maree Brown  from liberty plaza; let it breathe .......................... 79
Adrienne Maree Brown, Jenny Lee, Yusef Shakur, et al  One Step in Building the ‘Occupy/Unify’ Movement in Detroit ......................... 85
Keguro Macharia  Occupy DC (Hasty Notes) ........................................... 88
Jaime Omar Yassin  Occupy Oakland Day Four: Wherein I speak to some folks, and the General Assembly debates MoveOn’s move in .......... 92

Facilitation .................................................................................................. 99
Anne Tagonist  Heirs to the Autonomen ..................................................... 100
DeColonize LA  Statement .......................................................................... 104
Larisa Mann  On Occupy Wall Street ......................................................... 108
Hannah Chadeyane Appel  The Bureaucracies of Anarchy (Parts 1 & 2) . 112
Sonny Singh  Occupying Process, Processing Occupy: Spokes Council musings by one POC ......................................................... 121

Safer Spaces ........................................................................... 125
Jaime Omar Yassin  Occupy Oakland: Hugs Are Also an Option .......... 126
Occupy Boston Women's Caucus  Statement .................................. 128
A Bunch of Trans Women Occupiers  OWS Must Resist Cis-Supremacy and Trans-Misogyny .................................................. 129
Aaron Bady  Society Must Be Defended From Rats .......................... 133
Occupy Wall Street Safer Spaces Working Group  Transforming Harm & Building Safety: Confronting sexual violence at Occupy Wall Street and beyond .................................................. 138

People of Color ....................................................................... 141
Bruce A Dixon  Occupy Where? What's In It For Black and Brown People? .............................................................................. 143
Rinku Sen  Forget Diversity, It's About 'Occupying' Racial Inequity ...... 147
American Indian Movement of Colorado  An Indigenous Platform Proposal for 'Occupy Denver' .................................................................. 150
Manissa McCleave Maharawal  So Real It Hurts: Notes on Occupy Wall Street ........................................................................... 154
Tammy Kim  Race-ing Occupy Wall Street ...................................... 161
Harsha Walia  Letter to Occupy Together Movement .......................... 164 low end theory  the last thing we need ........................................... 171

Arts & Culture ........................................................................ 175
Percentages ............................................................................. 176
Octopi Everywhere ..................................................................... 177
Pepper Spray Cop ....................................................................... 178
Tents ......................................................................................... 180
Posters ....................................................................................... 181
Eat the Rich ............................................................................... 184
The Empire Strikes Back .............................................................. 185
We Are Legion ........................................................................... 186
We Are Everywhere ..................................................................... 187
Jaime Omar Yassin (& Chris Kendrick)  'I'm on a Boat!': Occupy Oakland navigates in unknown waters ........................................... 188
Puppets & Projections ................................................................ 192
Kenji Liu  Memory Is Solidarity: Ogawa-Grant Plaza as Opportunity .............................................................. 194

Sustainability .......................................................................... 197
Lemony Snicket  Thirteen Observations made by Lemony Snicket while watching Occupy Wall Street from a Discreet Distance .......................... 199
Dana Spiotta  In the Name Itself ...................................................... 201
Vijay Prashad  Occupying the Imagination, Cultivating a New Politics (Part 5) ........................................................................ 203
Aaron Bady  The Oakland Commune .............................................. 206
Sarah Jaffe  the class implications of 'know your history' ..................... 213
Emma Rosenthal  Arriving at Occupy LA – cops and dogs have more of a place than people with disabilities! ........................................... 216